

Jap's Former Sweetheart to Jail

RECALL ATTACKED BY SUPT. ELMER THOMAS

Mr. Ringer's $300 Assistant Says Many Names
On Petition Are Illegally Entered

DESPERATION SEIZES OFFICIALDOM

Recall Petitions for Four Councilmen Throws Big Scare Into Elmer
Thomas' Forces; Prepare to Use Every Legal Means for Its Defeat.

EVERY effort known to political chicanery is to be used to defeat the recall petition out for four city commissioners—Ringer, Smith, Ure and Towle. That has been shown during the last week when the first attack on these petitions was made. The World-Herald has seen fit to make itself a party to the scrap.

The protestants, led by Elmer Thomas, $300 per month superintendent of police (ex-officio), have undertaken the checking of these petitions. Up to date it has been discovered that fourteen persons are illegally registered, if the check engineered by "Police Superintendent" Thomas is correct. It is alleged by the checkers that several times that number is nearer the proper figure. Their statement may be correct.

This is the first time the recall has ever been attempted in Douglas county. The gentlemen who prepared and had signed these petitions took good care to see that the proper number of bona-fide voters signed it. They understood that, in such an undertaking, a considerable number of names would be discarded because of changes of address, duplication and other such contingencies. The law makes the same provision. As a matter of fact, nearly half of the registered names could be thrown out and still enough would be left to make the petition legal.

The object of the men who are protesting the petition is not against the sufficiency of the petition, in fact, but they are looking for some excuse to prevent the recall proposition actually going to a vote of the people of Omaha. It is a cold turkey proposition.

There has been a very general dissatisfaction with the manner in which the municipal government has been operated under the present regime.

The people have become disgusted in a measure uncomputable. They have asked for a recall of the officials they believe are responsible for the conditions now existing, in opposition to the general principles of what is considered the proper government of this cosmopolitan and metropolitan city. They have asked, in lawful form, for a recall for those officials. A hired man, paid a salary of $300 per month by men with ulterior motives, is attempting to stop the action of the law.

The last two or three months has shown beyond question that the men in office have done everything in their power to promote the position of the "squeezers" as against the common people. The abortive food profiteering investigation has been a farce. While cities like Chicago were sending profiteers to jail, Omaha has been hanging a medal on them. This has been shown during the last week when hungry citizens have flocked to food sales to save themselves from highway robbery.

It is everlastingly too late. When this recall petition came on to the market a bunch of interested city commissioners immediately showed themselves in front with an alleged investigation. Last Monday it was shown that city warehouses and cold storage plants had enough food in them to last the city five years. No arrests were made. No person was forced to sell his holdings for the benefit of the people. On the other hand, a superficial examination was made, reports received and, not in words, but by action, the profiteers have been told to shoot right along.

And these same city officials are attempting to retain office by alleging that some 150 signers to the recall petition out of nearly 7,000 are irregular.

Get the idea?

PROSTITUTION AND CRIME RAMPANT THROUGHOUT RESIDENCE DISTRICTS

No Attempt by City Officials to Curb Vicious System of Rottenness, Growing Up in Last Eighteen Months; Elmer Thomas Gets Share of Easy Money.

WHEN the legislature adopted a law intended to do away with the old system which made prostitution possible it was believed the question had been solved for good. In Omaha, the only metropolitan city of the state, the old "red light" district became a thing of the past and the bad hotels were very well cleaned up by the city administration then in office. It remained so until the people decided to make a change.

Today, under the so-called reform administration, Omaha has more prostitutes, more pimps, more bootlegging, more police court cases, more disregard for law in one day than under the old administration in a week. Police court used to close daily at 11 o'clock at central station. It seldom cleans up now before 1 o'clock in the afternoon, with many cases going over until the following day.

All of this goes on despite the fact that Elmer E. Thomas, acting police superintendent, superintendent of police and city prosecutor, at $300 per month, is daily on the job. Thursday Elmer sat in court for three hours, apparently waiting to hear some hard-boiled eggs tell their story of grief. Suddenly the case of a handsome woman, charged with bootlegging, came up and he fronted for her. She was dismissed and, arm in arm with her, he left the court room.

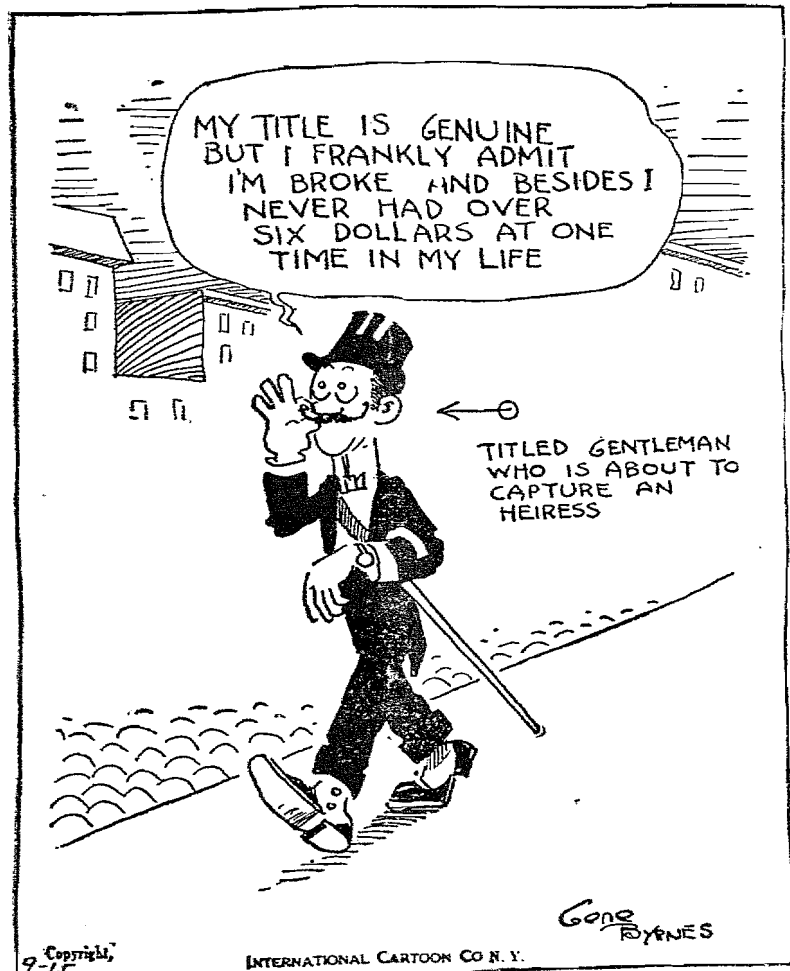

Up and down Sixteenth street, in half a hundred cheap hotels, in many second-class hotels and scores of cheap dumps, some of them isolated, and in numerous so-called "rooming houses" in the residence district, the underworld has been turned loose. The system has become so well organized that honest family life is almost tabooed in hundreds of localities in the city. In our "best communities" the ill-governed houses ply their trade, with bootleg whisky and well dressed members of the demimonde entertaining the vicious element that once confined its activities to Ninth street.

Practically all of this condition has sprung up since the present city administration came into activity. Our good church people have quite overlooked this condition, in their zeal to follow the advice of persons posing as reformers, while they were in reality trying to ingratiate themselves into the operations of the bosses controlling the petty grafting system by which these unfortunates exist. Absolute evidence of police officers being paid for protection has been recently unearthed, but no action has been taken against the offenders.

Matters have become almost intolerable for the better class of our people and the present movement for a change is the result. There is a recall movement on and it is being fought bitterly by those who have secured a taste of graft and are willing to prostitute all decent government to maintain the system recently organized.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN By GENE BYRNES

LETTER WRITING PROMISES TROUBLE FOR BIG LAWYER

Too Much Regard for Omaha Widow Seems Likely to Make Grief for Up-State Barrister.

In the recent doings of persons interested in the Blakeley divorce suit there has come to light a racy letter written by an up-state barrister to an Omaha widow, which may prove to be a boomerang to the writer. It appears this letter dropped into the hands of an unkind newspaper man is causing several parties a lot of grief. It is said to come from a southern Nebraska town, once famous for its fine little brewery. The barrister, according to the letter, is crazy about the widow. Some of it is said to be unprintable.

In forthcoming developments it is expected this letter will cut quite a figure in the legal working out of a bad snare.

CONVICTED DEALERS PASS BUCK TO CREAM MAKERS

When several ice cream dealers appeared in police court to plead to a charge of selling ice cream below the standard the fact came out that most of them were victims of the concerns that made the ice cream or of the milk dealers who sold them cream. Five of them pleaded guilty and were fined. The law provides that all ice cream must contain from 12 to 18 per cent butter fat. In each of the cases heard the ice cream was far below the standard. It was also shown that the dairy concerns of whom the dealers bought their cream were generally responsible for this condition. The ice cream dealers paid their fines, but it was understood that in some instances they would be reimbursed by the creamery men who so skilfully evaded the law.

ONE MINUTE CAFE SOLD TO ABLEY AND ASSOCIATE

The One Minute cafe, at 418 South Fifteenth street, has been purchased by Amos Abley and John Christensen, who will operate it in the future. The "One Minute" has an enviable record as an Omaha eating place. Originally it was opened on the site of the Henshaw hotel, nearly thirty years ago. When that hotel was built the place was sold to an employee, who moved to the present location and the cafe has been operated there ever since.

No Omaha restaurant, not even the Calumet, on Douglas street, has had a more continuous and successful business. The famous English teapot, which for twenty-five years stood in the front window as a sign, is still in the hands of the One Minute owners.

The new owners have given the One Minute a thorough overhauling, renovating and new decorations. New table linen has been purchased throughout.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

St Colwell was taking a well earned rest, after several months of strenuous endeavor. He was known as one of the village cut-ups in his time.

Harry Pearce denied that he was ever identified with the bootlegging business, except at the receiving end. That was about right.

Babe Ruth, the 300-pound beauty at 706 North Steenth street, was spending a few days' vacation with East End friends.

Walter Bell defeated Frank Douglas at pinocle for two buckets of near-beer. They were great gamblers in their time.

Gus Christensen was caught with a suspicious looking pop bottle, but was able to explain the contents to his old friend, Peter Ault, with whom he was forced to divide the "pop."

Tommy Toy discovered a leak in his copper-lined hip pocket. It cost Lou Adams a lot of money before the leak was discovered.

Bob Heller, formerly known as a leader in the sporting world, paid his subscription to The Mediator, a matter which indicated good judgment.

Jimmy Ford took a day off to explain the dangerous points of Omaha social life to several delighted audiences. He was a great entertainer.

Ruth McLane, North Seventeenth street, had numerous callers last week. A lot of newspaper boys had considerable explaining to do. Mr. Moore was on the spot.

Andy Gallagher, well known philanthropist, called on North End friends during the week and contributed to various charities in that end of our great religious city.

Emil Hoffman and his mighty collection of musicians were again on the job at our opera house on Harney street. He had some good recipes for nearly beer.

The story about Dan Butler, well known city commissioner, being engaged to marry was denied. He said he already had enough troubles.

All that bunk about Ossifer Petersen finding two smacks in his coat pocket was awfully funny for the boys on the force. Somebody nearly carried the joke too far.

Harry Pullman was still sticking around town, working at his old job. He was one of the village's industrious hustlers.

Ray Lones and some of his companions made midnight calls on friends in a Douglas street apartment. Ray said some of his friends were touched, but nobody believed anything he said.

OSATO'S VICTIM GOES ROUTE WHEN ABANDONED

Jessie Taylor and Her Underworld Associates
Caught in Police Dragnet

SECOND HAND DEALER COLLECTS CASH

Sob Story Told of How Once Pretty Woman Falls Victim of Wily
Jap, Who Aabndons Her for Frances Fitzpatrick; Hotel Man Succeeds Jap.

THE arrest a few days ago of Jessie Taylor, in her double apartment at 710-12 North Sixteenth street, where it was charged she operated an ill-governed house, becomes an interesting item of society news, because of her former friendship with a heathen Jap named Osato. The Jap married Miss Frances Fitzpatrick, a society belle, last January.

When the bulls went to Miss Taylor's apartment to arrest her and the inmates they found hanging above the couch a large framed picture of Osato, of whom she had once been so fond. In fact, it is stated by other tenants of this well known old rookery that Osato once was madly in love with this denizen of the underworld. When he became acquainted with Miss Fitzpatrick, however, Jessie lost out completely and continued stronger than ever in her evil ways.

Jessie has had a remarkable record during her occupation of the gilded palace of sin, if all reports are true. She has two flats at the above number and when the police swooped down on her they took Jessie and two other girls and their companions and a substantial assortment of hard liquor.

In the patrol wagon they were bundled away to the police station. Arriving there Miss Taylor found no former Japanese sweetheart to go on her bond and was sent to the booby hatch with her companions. Miss Taylor still retains much of youthful handsomeness and it is easy to understand why Osato should have been attracted to her. It is said, however, that the sweet young society girl stole away his heart and that her marriage to the Jap quite upset the unfortunate woman of the underworld.

The wedding between Miss Fitzpatrick and Osato created a sensation the like of which had not before upset the equilibrium of Omaha society. He is a photographer and it is said he does a good business on West Farnam street, where he has a studio.

The fair maid whose attentions he sought and later spurned remained in her gilded palace in the Mardis block. Spurned by her Japanese lover, she quickly went from bad to worse. In physical altercations with others she is said to have "razored" one woman and scalped another during her abnormal bibulousness.

When Osato abandoned Jessie there came a Sixteenth street furniture man to succeed to her affections. He was more solicitous of her money, however, than anything else. She had lived at his third-class hostelry down the Sixteenth street row. He saw an opportunity to merchandise Jessie and "set her up in business." He has been the collector daily at that Mardis block joint ever since. His name is Ike and he buys and sells second-hand furniture in the building adjoining the California hotel, of which he was formerly manager.

There is really a tale of sadness in this story. Jessie Taylor has seen better days—when she did not have to depend on the heathens and unscrupulous second-hand dealers for love tokens and an existence. When she appeared in court there still remained a twinkle of the eye which indicated those better days. But she had been sent the "route." Even this heathen Jap, ensconced in the bosom of a Christian society girl, had passed her up. Her junk peddling friend collected her money daily and robbed her of most of the earnings she was able to accumulate, as well as those of the unfortunate woman she harbored.

It was a lesson in sobs, depicting more things than the outside world ever dreamed of.

The heathen Jap still enjoys life with a white wife and has the respect of West End society.

MILLION TONS OF FOOD IN OMAHA AND PROFITEERS NOT PUNISHED

Enough Stored to Last Year and Prices Going Higher; Authorities
Refuse to Act Against Criminals Responsible For This Condition.

THERE are enough eggs stored in Omaha today for every man, woman and child in the city to have one egg a day each for a whole year, without bringing another egg into the city. This is aside from frozen eggs, of which there are enough to furnish one and one-half eggs for each of them one day for a second year. The people of Omaha are paying 45 cents a dozen for eggs.

During the next year a conservative estimate is that 10,000,000 eggs will be permitted to go to waste, in order to keep up the price of hen fruit. That is one of the secrets to the present high cost of living.

There is also in storage in the city 12,000 tons of meats, or 24,000,000 pounds. Of butter there is one and a half million pounds in storage. If the Union stockyards were closed for ten months there would still be enough meat left to supply the city for a year. With the normal receipts of live stock and other commodities the Omaha market will receive enough products within the next year to supply the city for twelve years, even if another pound was not received.

These are the conditions, just as they exist. It means that the most ungodly system of profiteering that ever was heard of is in existence. It means that a coterie of gangsters have combined to hold up the consumers of the country to the last cent that the peace of the country will stand for. In cities other than Omaha the officials are taking the bull by the horns. In Omaha the ring that is bleeding the public is working daily and getting away with not even serious censure.

There is in storage in Omaha 54,000 pounds of iced rabbits. When the rabbit season opens in October they will be placed on sale and the fresh rabbits will be stored for next year. What is left over will go to the dump to be buried. Some of the produce dealers of Omaha have had the nerve to say that they had a right to let their stuff decay and rot if they so desired and it was nobody's business.

This is the situation that has come to light as a result of an abortive attempt to get at the bottom of the high cost of living. Our county attorney has not even ventured to suggest to the district judges a grand jury to probe conditions as they exist.

There is absolutely no excuse for this condition. Storage houses are keeping the prices from going higher, not because of patriotism, but because they do not have room enough to handle what is in existence. It

TIME FOR ACTION IN MEXICO

THE time has just about arrived for Uncle Sam to take the bull by the horns in Mexico and settle that vexatious question once and for all. The continued depredations by itinerant Mexican desperadoes on American people has become so exasperating that it cannot be overlooked for a great length of time.

The exploitation of Mexico by Americans in recent years has had a bad effect in some instances, but as a general proposition it has been a good thing for that country. Mexico covers a very wide area and has not had a responsible head for a decade. The natural result has been that the machinery of government has decayed and become almost useless as a power to police the various states.

What is required in Mexico is a power similar to the power that civilized the Hawaiian and Philippine groups and brought to them stable government. Sooner or later that power will have to be furnished by some substantial nation that can enforce its dictates for good and stable government in Mexico.

Our people have taken much from Mexico and tried to get along with the people of that country. Mexico has not progressed like other new countries, either in education or the art of government. On the other hand, it has decayed. Far-seeing men, with an eye to developing the natural resources of that country, have invested great sums of money. It is too late to stop the advance in that development.

When the Mexican is educated to decent living, to the value of thrift and to the necessity for advancing instead of declining, then and not until then will that country progress. It has just about come to the point where Uncle Sam will be forced to take a hand in bringing about a stable government, even if it takes an army to do it.

OBSERVATIONS

Senator Hitchcock's newspaper is getting worried about who Omaha will offer as a gubernatorial candidate next year. It is a safe bet our mayor will be side-stepped at the convention.

The fact that the entire country has gone "dry" does not appear to interfere with the little game known as "bootlegging." Fifteen bootleggers were on hand Monday morning in police court.

After awhile Omaha people will begin to appreciate what the Woodmen of the World is doing for our city. Also what a great, big man is W. A. Fraser.

Mr. Shotwell says he can find no way to punish food profiteers in Douglas county. He is about the only county attorney in the country that feels that way.

Some large department stores attempted to corner up the stock of government stores in Omaha, but did not get away with it. One big concern had to return a big consignment of blankets.

The policemen have organized to secure an increase in pay. It is about time. The firemen got away with theirs—why not the police?

The attempt of landlords to squeeze the tenant is being looked into. It is about time. A lot of these vicious landlords were preparing to inaugurate a system worse than that in vogue in England.

There appears to be no lack of rottenness in Omaha, despite the worthy effort of Police Commissioner Elmer Thomas.

Mr. Ringer will return to the city next week to assist Superintendent Thomas of the police department.

OLD ACTORS DISCUSS CHANGES IN TIMES

Many old time actors and actresses, who have in recent years joined the "movies," held a reunion in New York the other day to talk over old times and new creations. It was a time for reminiscence and they enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

Actors who trod the boards ten and fifteen years ago together in a play that thrilled New York, had a reunion last week. They talked over the olden days when movies knew their place and left the drama in peace.

The players were members of the cast that supported Amelia Bingham in "The Climbers." The place of their reunion was nothing more or less than the Vitagraph Brooklyn studio.

The films had finally reached out and gathered these artists. They will reproduce on celluloid the play that made them famous.

Frank Loomis, casting director for the Vitagraph, believes he has accomplished a notable feat in mobilizing the principal players of "The Climbers" to appear in Vitagraph's reproduction of that stage success.

Miss Corinne Griffith will play the star's role. Tom Terriss is director. James Spottswood, who played the role of Trotter in the stage version, with Miss Bingham, repeats that performance in the film. Percy Marmont, also a member of the earlier cast, is in the film. Miss Emily Fitzroy, a well known stage favorite, has an important part.

Italian Philosopher-Martyr.

February 17 is the anniversary of the burning in Rome, in 1600, of the Italian philosopher, Giordano Bruno. He was subjected to continual and terrible persecution for seven years prior to his death, in the hope that he would recant. In 1889 a monument was erected to him under papal protest at the place where he perished at the stake.

Poor Picker.

They were discussing the raising of children at the chamber of commerce show recently and Dr. Maude Wiley, in charge of the Welfare league, told an amusing story. Seems the little girl had been spanked by her father for disobeying. With tears running down her cheeks she ran to her mother, crying, "I think papa's perfectly horrid. Was he the only man you could get?"

You Win!

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA ENDOWMENT FUND DRIVE

Many New Additions to Be Made to Popular Educational Institution.

The University of Omaha, an institution which has grown from practically nothing to a splendid educational institution in less than ten years, is to be extended. The board of trustees and officers of the university have agreed to raise a fund of $500,000 in this city for an immediate extension of the institution, creation of new departments and enlargement of other departments.

The University of Omaha was founded by a group of representative citizens, all well known business and professional men, on October 8, 1908, to conduct and maintain a co-educational university for the promotion of sound learning and education, under such influence as will lead to the highest type of character and citizenship in Omaha. The idea was to create an institution where at the least possible expense all classes of young men and women may secure an education that would fit them to enter at once upon the successful pursuit of an honorable vocation.

Though the university was organized in October, 1908, it did not open its doors until November 1, 1909, when twenty-six students enrolled. During the school semester, just closed, 540 students attended the Omaha university.

The university now needs endowment to firmly establish it. It needs added equipment to increase its educational service to Greater Omaha. The raising of such a fund has been sanctioned by the board of trustees of the university and is now under way.

The university will conduct an organized, well established campaign along firm lines, and expects to canvass the entire city in the interest of the institution.

die more produce and thus keep it away from the consumer. With capacity for storing twice the amount now in cold storage, prices would be twice as high. Thrice as much food as is now being wasted would go into the sewers, in order to maintain the high scale of food prices.

These are actual facts. They cannot be controverted. If our law-enforcing powers so desire they can improve the situation bountifully. If they maintain their present silence and inactivity prices will go still higher. It is the plain duty of the people to either force them all into activity or put the whole bunch out of office, city, county and state.

Three generations of Omahans have banked at the U. S. National since its opening in 1856.

Rubber Corporation Offers to YOU

An Unparalleled Investment Opportunity

The Jacobs Tire & Rubber Corporation offers automobile owners an opportunity to share in the profits of this wonderful industry, and at the same time make substantial savings on their own tires and tubes.

Read every word of this advertisement, as it means dollars in your pocket.

A dollar saved is a dollar made.

This tells how you can buy your tires and tubes at "factory prices."

A unique and effective advertising campaign.

The cooperative direct-to-consumer plan that The Jacobs Tire & Rubber Corporation has adopted really saves its shareholders thousands of dollars every year on their tires and tubes.

This Corporation expects to have, when the Advertising Campaign has finished, 25,000 stockholders who are automobile owners using on an average of five tires per year for each car that they own. This will mean a guaranteed output for 125,000 automobile tires, and about 135,000 tubes.

The Corporation now is working on a plan that has been used with great success by a number of large corporations, such as the United Drug Co., operating a chain of about 8,000 Rexall Drug Stores; the Jewel Tea Stores, the Great Atlantic & Pacific Grocery System, the United Cigar Stores Co., Kresge, Knox and Woolworth Five and Ten Cent Stores, and many other chain store propositions which have made tremendous successes and have built up from comparatively small companies to gigantic organizations.

This is the guarantee on our tires: "Guaranteed to give as many miles as you think they should. The customer is the sole judge."

ADVICE ABOUT INVESTING

Read What These Wise Men Say Regarding Investments

"The foundation of wealth is the first $100.00 well invested."

J. P. MORGAN

"Buy when the stock is first offered."

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

"I invested my first $100.00 in a new idea and made $100,000 out of it."

MARSHALL FIELD

"Don't delay; get it while you can."

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER

"Fear is old-womanish and has kept untold millions from making fortunes."

ANDREW CARNEGIE

"Five thousand Americans are worth a million each because they invested their savings in new things."

WESTINGHOUSE

"It is the keen-brained man who invests at the start of an enterprise who makes all the money."

E. H. HARRIMAN

"If you ever make money you must make it on your own judgment and foresight. When you see a good opportunity to invest do it quickly. The fellow who waits either loses the chance altogether or pays a premium to the one who thinks and acts quickly."

RUSSELL SAGE

A Direct Profit to All Car Owners

During the several years you have owned a car have you not often wished that some one would find a way to cut down the cost of tires to the user?

You Can Share in These Enormous Profits

An income producing interest in a business as profitable as the rubber industry is something well worth obtaining. It has already been shown that enormous profits are to be made in this growing industry. Just bear in mind also that as the years go by our output will increase, our sales and the resulting profits will increase year by year, meaning substantial advances in the value of your shares and an increase in your income from earned dividends that will be most satisfactory.

Word of Mouth Advertising

It is acknowledged that word-of-mouth advertising is the most effective and least expensive. Our thousands of members and shareholders will be walking advertisers of our Tires and Tubes. Each individual shareholder, in fact, will be a salesman for our products, especially with those who are owners of cars and who are using our tires and tubes exclusively because of their direct financial interest in the company. An immediate saving is made by the discount allowed to our stockholders of 25 per cent on tires and tubes.

What an investment of $30.00 in one share of this stock means to you Mr. Automobile Owner.

If you use only five tires and five tubes a year for each car, you will save at an average of from $60.00 to $120.00. This means, on your investment of $30.00, you automatically declare to yourself a dividend of from 200 per cent to 400 per cent. Your $30.00 in the savings bank all year long at 4 per cent will earn for you the large sum of $1.20. Which is the better investment? You are the judge.

The stockholders of The Jacobs Tire & Rubber Corporation buys his tires direct from his own Company and saves thereby the profits, advertising and selling costs of the Distributor, Jobber and Dealer, which amount to from $5.00 to $25.00 on every tire, depending upon the size.

Below is a coupon. It means dollars in your pocket. Cut it out right now and send in your subscription. The Corporation prefers that you subscribe for only one share, as they desire to have as many stockholders who are automobile owners owning one share as the Advertising Campaign allotment will supply. They do not, however, limit the purchaser to one share if he desires to subscribe for more.

RUTH CHATTERTON IN
"THE MERRIE MONTH OF MAY"

Henry Miller Will Offer This as the First Brandeis Attraction.

Henry Miller will present Ruth Chatterton at the Brandeis theater as the opening attraction of the season on August 29 and 30 in "The Merrie Month of May," a new play by George Scarborough, the author of "The Heart of Wexona" and other plays. The appearance of Miss Chatterton in a new play is a matter of genuine interest to theater-goers. Her remarkable success in "Come Out of the Kitchen," "Daddy Long Legs," "The Rainbow" and the recent revival of "A Marriage of Convenience" will be readily recalled.

Since she first came prominently before the public, under Mr. Miller's management, her professional advance has been rapid and she is today the foremost young woman star before the public.

In "The Merrie Month of May" Miss Chatterton appears as the daughter of Senator Baldwin of Arizona. The scenes are laid in the senator's home at the present time.

Mr. Miller has surrounded Miss Chatterton with a notably fine company and, of course, the play is produced in his usual artistic way. The engagement is for two nights and a matinee on Saturday.

Henry Miller and Blanche Bates

In many respects the most notable event of the year in the theater will be the appearance at the Brandeis theater on September 5 and 6 of Henry Miller and Blanche Bates in "Moliere," the remarkable play by Philip Moeller which was such a pronounced hit in New York, where it ran for months at the Liberty theater.

"A Prince There Was."

"A Prince There Was," George M. Cohan's recent comedy success, which made such a tremendous hit in New York and Chicago, will be the attraction at the Brandeis for five nights beginning Sunday, August 31.

"BEAUTY TRUST" IS NOT MIS-NAMED

Omaha Was Deprived of It Last Season Through Flu Shut Down.

I. H. Herk's "Beauty Trust" opens a week's engagement in "Nedra" at the popular Gayety theater on Saturday matinee, August 23. This is an extravaganza and burlesque which has been making thousands of friends along the Columbia circuit. The cast is of the first order, from top to bottom, and the offering sets a pace from the beginning which never flags.

Frances Parr, the dainty little sourette, scarcely more than out of her teens, has all the piquancy, tabasco and jazz which the most exacting could ask for. Effie Burton, the prima donna, sings like a bird and will add to her already large number of friends.

Al Hillier, Jew comic; Jack Pearl, the Dutch, and Eugene Rauth, the Irish, make a combination hard to beat. If you have a touch of rheumatism, so that it hurts you to laugh, be sure and keep away from the "Beauty Trust," says Manager Johnson.

Everybody knows Frank Damsel, the straight man. He is there with the words this time, as usual. Jack Sheehan, the juvenile, and Inez Hanly, ingenue, are a pair worth the price of admission. A bunch of handsomer, prettier chorus girls than those of the "Beauty Trust" might be found, but we don't know where you would start to look.

A big vaudeville feature are Jack Young, Oscar Gardner and Harold Rick as the "three rounders."

This is the booking which was to fill the first week in October at the Gayety last season, but the flu germs got so busy that the theaters were all closed and the "Beauty Trust" rode right on through to Kansas City.

Sunday's matinee stars at 3 o'clock. Matinee daily all week at 2:15.

EMPRESS ATTRACTIONS

The Empress management has procured a program for next week that should serve to satisfy the most exacting. The Brooklyn Comedy Four, a quartet of singers of unquestioned ability and comedians of the variety who evidently believe it is unnecessary to step out of their characters to gain laughs, will provide the stellar attraction. They come with the latest comedy songs as well as high-class selections.

Keating and Walton, a pair bubbling over with personality, show what they are capable of doing as singers, dancers and comedians, in their offering, "The Younger Generation."

Starr and Gilmore comprise a clever duo of entertainers, whose specially written comedy places them unquestionably in the foremost rank of vaudeville entertainers.

Kay, Hamlin and Kay in their comedy sketch, "The Billposter," promise to furnish the laughing hit of the bill. The photoplay attraction for the first half of the week will be the romantic comedy-drama entitled, "A Favor to a Friend," with Emmy Wehlen as its star. The story is one of action and thrills. It pulsates through a plot which depicts the attempts of a young western girl who comes east to New York to claim her deceased father's estate. Upon her arrival she becomes entangled in a series of adventures in rapid succession.

Hornbill's Remarkable Nest.

Most wonderful of all is the nest of the hornbill. The hen bird lays her eggs in a hollow in a tree, and as soon as she is settled on them the male bird walls her in with clay, leaving just space for her head to stick out. He feeds her, and there she sits, not until the eggs are hatched, but until the young are big enough to come out.

Author of the "Doxology."

The author of the "Doxology" was the English bishop, Thomas Ken (1637-1711), who, in 1691, was deprived of his see (Bath and Wells) as a non-juror. His most widely known hymns include the morning and evening hymns, "Awake, My Soul!" and "Glory to Thee, My God, This Night," both of which end with the famous "Doxology," "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow."

Show Volcanic Formation.

The whole of the west of Scotland and northeast Ireland are of volcanic formation. Look at the Giant Causeway, with its queer pipes of basalt, and the Isle of Skye, which is simply made of lava. Staffa consists of sheets of bedded basaltic lava, and the famous Fingall's cave is excavated from pure lava.

Character is the true test.

Using Tobacco

Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.

You know, better than anyone else that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart trouble, indigestion, dyspepsia, nervousness, insomnia, poor eyesight—these and many other ailments, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco. Besides it is an expensive, utterly useless habit.

Habit Banished In 48 to 72 Hours

No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 50 years—Tobacco Redemptor will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.

Tobacco Redemptor contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

Three Capital Crimes.
"When I was a boy," states Mr. Patch in Stockton Herald, "there were three capital crimes—murder, blasphemy, and lying abed in the morning. Of the three, murder and blasphemy might sometimes be forgiven, but late rising never. One of my grandfathers frequently got up at four o'clock on a winter morning, built a fire in the cook stove and then would sit down by it and go to sleep."—Kansas City Times.

The Eagle of Napoleon.

Napoleon revived the ancient symbol of the Caesars. The Napoleonic eagle itself was eight inches in height and nine inches across the wings. It stood on a brass block three inches square, and weighed three and one-half pounds. Modern colors are as nothing compared to the old ones, as difficult to hide as the big drum.

Untying the Knot.

There is a marriage custom among the Santals, a tribe in India, by which, after a cash price has been set on the bride by the parents, the fiancé and his lady tie a knot in a string for each day to intervene before the wedding. Then the parents separate; day by day a knot is untied, and when the end of the string is reached the real knot is tied that makes the couple one.

National Anthems.

"The Star-Spangled Banner" is now regarded as our national anthem; that of England, "God Save the King;" France, "The Marseillaise." The other allies apparently have no distinguishing title for their national airs. The national air of Italy is known to us simply as the "Italian National Hymn" and that of Portugal as the "National Air of Portugal," etc.

You Should Have a Grafonola In Your Home

When Buying a Phonograph, Why
Not Buy the BEST?

Especially so when it costs no more than the rest. For remember! You can buy a Genuine Columbia Grafonola for as little as $32.50.
