Women Ran The Place

Grand Island is having a sensation that few cities of its size are able to boast of these fine August days. Grand Island is some town and they do anything there. John Maloney, former chief of police of that city was shot and fatally wounded Monday night and Officer J. E. Buswell was shot in the leg during a drunken spree they were having with some of the city's favorite chicken.

It all hapened at the Savoy hotel, of which Vivian Doggett is the proprietor. They took Vivian and the other women to jail. It happened at 1 o'clock in the morning when the best part of the town was asleep. Maloney is said to have protested against the girls being arrested but Buswell would not stand for it and they were all taken to jail.

It was one of those old fashio ned raids in which they used guns in a most convincing way. For several months the "hotel" has been under suspicion. The police headed by Chief Martin, who succeeded Maloney sent a man to the hotel to register, the man giving Chief Martin his room number, with an arrangement whereby he would signal the Chief if anything happened.

There was trouble when the police attempted to go to the man's room. The police arrested the clerk and took him, with Nellie Predmore, one of the women, to the station and rushed up the stairs. There they found the whole bunch putting on a joy party. They were imbibing to a fare you well and some of the girls were unable to navigate to the station in a very fine manner. The wagon was sent for and Vivian and half a dozen other girls were loaded in and sent to the boody hatch.

Maloney, hearing of the affair, went to the Savoy hotel. What he said and did there would not look well in print. With three men from Hastings, Welsh, Baird and Murphy. and the negro driver named Jones, Maloney had driven to the hotel, to square up things it is said. How he squared them will be seen. He took the officer, Buswell to task for pinching the place and in the alley back of the old Savoy a gun battle was staged, Maloney receiving two slugs in the leg and another in the belly.

When the smoke had cleared away Maloney was found in the Doggett woman's rooms in the hotel with Vivian in the police station. A gun was found in the room. Maloney was later taken to the hospital, where his condition is reported critical.

The old Savoy hotel has for a long time been run as headquarters for women who solicited business on the streets and who had rooms there and no place else. Like some of our so-called hotels in Omaha they got away with it too. When Chief Maloney went down and out after the spring elections, the hotel kept on going as usual until this affair took place. Maloney had always protected the Savoy and was himself a friend of Vivian Doggett who ran it. She has boasted that the hotel, as she called it, was a fixture and if you did not believe it, just start something. Every traveling man who has made Grand Island for the past five years has had that experience.

At one time several years ago President Roosevelt stopped over Sunday in Grand Island, not wishing to travel on Sunday. The editor of The Mediator, who was then in the employ of The Associated Press, was sent to Grand Island to spend the day, and incidentally to see the president. He stopped at the Savoy hotel and it was full of wild women at the time. Some of the Newspaper men came over to the hotel for a visit and to have a couple of cold bottles. They found about everything they were looking for and then some. While we were enjoying the cold bottles, five or six fair damsels came into the room and wanted to be friendly, but these old men passed them up, be-

REIGN OF UNSPEAKABLE BOTHERING K. C. COURT

Kansas City is having its reign of degeneracy again. According to reports in the Kansas City Star Judge Latshaw sentenced Harry Dumm, a piano player, to twenty years in the penitentiary for "an unnatural crime" and hearings were given to half a dozen others for similar crimes, including Emil Eichenauer, whose father is a man of wealth and formerly connected with the postoffice of that city. He was released on $10,000 bond.

The other five who were sent to jail were Harold Cline, Sterling Davidson, a hotel man; Robert Torbert, and Billy Young. They were unable to furnish $10,000 bond each and went sent to jail pending the hearing of their cases.

Dumm, however, admitted his crime. whereupon Judge Latshaw said to him: "Your crime is an unpardonable one. You are worse than a murderer. While you should be pitied there is only one place for you and that is the penitentiary. I'll give you twenty years to think it over."

Dumm was one of those fellows whose crimes was unspeakable. The circumstances of his arrest are not given out but he admitted his guilt.

Eichenauer's bond was furnished by several neighbors, in the 2700 block on Cypress avenue. He could not be seen by newspaper men following his release and is keeping in hiding.

SERGEANT RUSSELL SUCCEEDS VANOUS AS POLICE CAPTAIN

Sergeant William Russell was made captain of police to fill the place made vacant by the death of Captain Vanous. Russell is considered a fit man for the place. He has been filling the vacancy made by the death of Vanous up to the present. His appointment takes effect September 1.

Sergeant Sam L. Morris was a candidate for the place, but Russell was the ranking sergeant and his appointment was a popular one. Incidentally, Chief Dunn used good judgment in making the selection of Russell as it indicates that his policy will be that of keeping men in the line of promotion on the seigniorage basis other conditions being equal.

LEIGH APARTMENTS WILL CONTINUE AT PRESENT RENTALS

Announcement made by The Bee that the firm of Hastings and Hayden would join the reduction of rents proves to be false. The Bee stated that this firm would continue its regular rentals of $55 per month at the Leigh, which is one of the smaller apartment houses is wrong because they have never rented any apartment at $55. The rents will continue the same as usual, until the price of coal comes down, Mr. Hastings stated to a representative of the Mediator this week.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

Gene Holbrook left the city for a few days this week. Bill Haley told callers he did not expect Gene back until he returned.

Carl Weimer, social favorite, spent a dime to see a picture show, when nobody was looking. Carl was a great spender.

Bill Little, favorite dispenser of candy and Green River at a well known cigar store was also a great writer of notices. Bill's busy as a cat with two tails.

George Yeager was still making goo goo eyes at the girl at the Rome hotel. George will be making explanations to his wife soon.

Dr. Quigley said times were looking better. A new customer came into his office the other day with an old disease.

A new cigar store opened on Fifteenth street, much to the disgust of two others that have been taking the gravy and didn't care who knew it.

W. N. Naken was busy telling them about his new dress models. Some of the people fell for him, at that. He was there with the goods when it came to fitting women, at that.

Reliable reports from Peru, Neb., stated that Red Neal was in no way related to the Neals who were having their troubles down there. Red Neal said he could not stand for everything.

A. J. Matuszki, debonair kid, who has been loafing around for several months threatened to go to work. His wife said that somebody had to work part of the time.

Pat Tobin was talking about going to Ireland to accept a job under DeValera but nobody would believe it.

Dan Whitney was getting away with a lot of things but Harry Benford said he could not get rid of that old Ak-Sar-Ben stuff he had left over and that they refused to let him peddle this year.

Charlie Pipkin was spending his last year's earnings trying to learn Frank Keegan the business. It was a hard job.

Leroy Wade was still putting out the old stuff about what he was going to do, but nobody caught him doing anything.

CONGRESS WILL ACT ON MEASURE SHORTLY

Anti-Saloon League Keeps Up Fight Against Personal Liberty

SOUTHERN MEN ACTIVE SUPPORTERS

People Become Disgusted With Volstead Law and What it Took Away From Them—Anti-Saloon League on Job
as Long as the Money Lasts

Under the terms of the bill now before Congress the people will have won an important victory and one which will mean that they may make beer for their personal use that will end once and for all the ridiculous situation that has been in popular favor since the country went dry.

Under the terms of this bill any person may make for their own personal use as much beer as they wish. The result will be apparent. The anti-saloon league leeches are hanging around congress like has been their system hoping to stop that body from undoing what has already been done to make us bone dry. From all indications their efforts will be quite unsuccessful. Omaha, like nearly every big city in the country is forced to put up with a lot of bootleggers who are making hooch by the barrel and putting it on the market.

With the bars taken off the beer and with everybody keeping a good sized brewery in their home for the purpose of brewing their own beer things will be different. The average man will no longer be forced to run the gauntlet of revenue sleuths, police officers and deputy sheriffs to secure a small drink of beer.

Of course, the law will be taken advantage of by bootleggers but what if it is. It will relieve a tendency that has long been going on to tie conditions up as tight as a drum. The brewing and distilling for personal consumption is all the country has asked for at any time. There probably will be a tax placed on the distilled or brewed liquor as there should be, and that will go a long ways towards satisfying the interests opposed to the manufacture and sale. The tax, however, will be a means of keeping track of how much of it is being made and by whom.

The country will be a lot better off than it is at present. It will be impossible to make the "kill me quick" stuff that has been going on so long and it will also serve to keep the bootlegger from making the goat out of everyone who has something to say about the beer that is made.

We may thank generally the southern members for their activity in securing this legislation. They have taken an open stand on the matter and have as a general thing voted for anything that would relieve the situation. It is no small thing to take away from the home the rights given to it by God Almighty himself, and the quicker the Volsteads and the Elmer Thomases learn the truth the better off the country will be. It created a quite uncalled for condition and when the country was sent bone dry and a condition from which it will not be easy to recover.

The funny part of it all is that the Anti-saloon league, having accomplished what it set out to accomplish, keeps on hammering at the wets. They are not satisfied. Truth is, they will keep it up as long as the money lasts. There are a lot of half starved fellows like Elmer Thomas, who could not make an honest dollar at the law profession, and who have been picked up by the Antisaloon league and put to work. They are taking the money as fast as they can get it and will continue to take it as long as it is available.

In Omaha the beer bill will have its effect in a remarkable manner. Those persons who want beer the worst will have it, in spite of the antisaloon league. The meaning of this campaign is that people have become thoroughly dissatisfied and are going to fight for their rights. The American people have lived with the belief that they have had certain alienable rights and have lost them. They do not understand why they cannot have these rights and are going to learn why they are being made the butt for every alleged reformer that shows up.

Mr. Volstead, author of the Volstead law is seeing these days his law having the kick taken out of it. In

BAD CHECK ARTISTS OF NEBRASKA AND IOWA FLEECE OMAHANS

Borrow Money to do the Road Houses and Hootch Joints and Give Their Checks for the Amount Which Prove Worthless—
Iowa Furniture Dealer One of Them

Bad check artists have been getting busy in Omaha in recent months and left a string behind of rotten checks that would bankrupt any community with a financial position less firm than Omaha. Some of these checks are from Nebraska and some from Iowa, parties putting them for as much as $300 at a time. One person has give our collection department one of that size and others in the aggregate of a thousand dollars.

The mayor of an Iowa town has a son who dropped into our city and borrowed money galore on his check, which later turned out to be no good. Another one from Iowa left a number of bad checks with three figures.

It is possible that the makers of these checks does not know the Nebraska law for uttering a bad check. County attorneys are putting the law to work. To issue a bad check in Nebraska is a penitentiary offense and in order to clean up these checks the persons who have got them have taken up the system of giving the names of persons issuing checks which come back to the press.

"Insufficient funds," "no account at this bank," stopped payment and other reasons are among those given by most of the banks returning the checks. It has been the habit of some of these young fellows to come to town from their homes in Iowa and Nebraska towns, go broke and make a check for money with which to buy hooch, swell spreads and do the road houses. They fear the facts that they will be heard from as having been in these places and take steps to undo their wrong by stopping payment on the checks.

The result is the holder is out his money. Recently there came a fellow to the city and spent three hundred dollars on taxis and wild women. He borrowed the money and got away with it. The bank refused to pay his check when it went forward for payment. This is one instance. His name will be printed in the near future, it is stated unless he comes through with the money. He is said to own a furniture business in his home town in Iowa.

Up at Tekamah a similar case, with a less amount involved, is also reported. Protests against the checks are usually made, with the result that the holder pays the additional fees of the country notary public, amounting to from $2 to $3.

GAYETY AND EMPRESS THEATERS WILL HAVE OPEN SHOP THIS YEAR

Unable to Agree With Stage Hands They Declare for Policy of Open Shop—Cannot Agree to Reduction—Empress Lost $11,000 Last Year

Omaha stage employes ran into the real thing when they undertook to force the issue with Old Man Johnson of the Gayety and Manager Ledoux of the Empress theatres. These two houses have increased wages of the stage hands until they reached the limit.

Johnson was paying an orchestra leader $78 per week and stage hands have had increases of 150 per cent in recent years. These two managers offered a reduction of 25 per cent in wages, but the men refused point blank to talk to them on this basis. The international order of stage hands have taken a hand, but Johnson and Ledoux have started the open shop.

The result is that stage hands are taking their medicine and saving not a word. About two dozen of them are out of winter's jobs and will not have one in these theatres. Th stage hands are men who move the scenery around at the critical moment and are never seen by the audience. Their work does not entail great energy and they have much to do keeping quiet.

The affairs at the Empress came to a show down. Manager Ledoux made every attempt to settle the difficulty and get the men to come clean with him. He lost something like $11,000 last season, with the wild months yet to come. There are about eighty-five theatres on the Columbia circuit between Boston and Omaha. Manager Johnson says these theatres have all declared an open shop. Locally the theatre will have experienced men to handle the stage. The number is cut from five to four, which with those carried by the visiting company will do the work satisfactorily. The orchestra will be composed of ex-service men, and an experienced man will be selected as leader. Every company carries a leader, which makes the musical problem very satisfactory.

Johnson does not anticipate any trouble with the start off, which will happen next Saturday. He will make a superior showing, he says. He has reduced prices to an extent that will give the public the benefit of his action in declaring an open shop. The Gayety theatre will be open for business next Thursday. The house is being given a thorough cleaning and everything will be like new when the theatre opens for the opening performance next Saturday afternoon.

DIRIGIBLE LOST

The fate of the dirigible balloon ZR-2 has been told but the reasons for the wreck are unknown. The loss, so far as dollars and cents go, fall on the English builders, but the loss to the American navy falls on America and their deaths are due to a bad piece of bungling somewhere.

The whole trouble is with the vessel itself. No stretch of imagination can give credit to the dirigible, as a war vessel. It is open to attack from every standpoint. It is itself a menace to the lives of its own men and in relative importance to the work laid out for it by the navy department it is hard to understand and it can not be taken seriously as a fighting machine. In the first place the dirigible is so big it can be made the object of attack on a moment's notice, with no means of protection.

It takes a hangar that covers five acres to house it and then it is only partly protected. The nature of its makeup is not in keeping with that of other things that make up war material. The gas bag is made of inflammable stuff and the bag itself is kept full of gas, which makes it a menace to itself, aside from the outside influences which come in contact with it. In the summer time it is a mighty dangerous thing. With the gas always subject to the rays of the sun, the big bag is liable at any moment to become ignited and there is little hope for the crew's safety in that event.

From a war standpoint the dirigible is a total loss. If this ZR-2 had to blow up much the better it was that it should have occurred before it was delivered. We will save $2,000,000 by it blowing up when it did. The lesson will prove a good one, and will doubtless put an end to our extravagant ideas of buying gas bags. We have enough of them outside the army without purchasing others which have been proven a menace to our men and a loss to the navy. The gas bag has proven a dead loss wherever it has been tried out and will continue to do, just like the famous Zeppelins, which were an abject failure at the crucial moment.

PEACE WITH GERMANY

We are at peace with Germany again, after five years. We do not mind the difference but it will have its effect before very long. After all we did more business with Germany before the war than with any other country. We have been handicapped ever since the war by having no diplomatic representative in Germany, despite the fact that the war was ended.

With the signing of the peace and by our representatives, it will mean a general understanding, the sending of an ambassador to Germany once more and the taking up of diplomatic relations, with the result that trade will again be carried on in the usual manner. It means a big thing for this country and one that will be of interest to everybody—that we will be trading again with Germany.

Senator Hitchcock is quoted as saying that he knows of no objection to the treaty. The senator, it was presumed, would see nothing wrong about the treaty, but his connection with the foreign relations committee of the senate lends significance to the statement. It appears from all reports that the treaty is complete and simply awaits the signatures of President Harding and our secretary of state.

At any rate it was the longest step we have taken toward a resumption of trade, and getting back to anything near where we were before the war, and will act as an incentive to those persons who have been seeking to renew trade relations, with Germany, so long held back by the war.

NO ANTI-BEER BILL THIS SEASON

Urged by desperation, the dries attempted to get before congress for final action before that body adjourned. The anti-beer bill which they have been working on so long. The wets have seen the drastic result of prohibition on the country and refused to have anything to do with the measure at this session. Attempts to set a date for action on the measure at the next session also were unavailing.

Thus ends a fight against drastic dry legislation, and which would have put another spike in the already airtight legislation that has been enacted. It was a bill framed with the idea of preventing the making of beer by private families for family use and is considered a decided victory for the wets, because it gives indication that congress is in no mood at this time for additional dry legislation. The anti-beer bill will probably never be heard of again.

The dries, however, are expected to get busy as quickly as congress convenes, with the purpose of taking up the bill and pushing it to passage. They have so indicated by their action. It is a cinch they will stay in Washington as long as their money holds out. Unless they can secure legislation in the next congress, they appear to be doomed, because the congress to be elected next year will doubtless take a decided stand against any further anti-beer legislation.

7,735,000 MEN OUT OF WORK

The secretary of Labor reports that 7,735,000 persons are at present out of work. This is 735,000 more than the maximum number ever reported without labor and gives evidence of what will occur in the country the coming winter. Labor is having about the hardest struggle of its life at this time, and added to this condition is the high price on practically everything that laboring man has to buy. A lot of them are not buying anything, but that does not signify that they would not buy if they had the means wherewith to buy something. It is true that these men are dissatisfied with conditions.

A cook who recently applied to an employment bureau for a job said he had been in Omaha for twenty-five years and was a good cook too. He had the appearance of a reliable man, but could not get a job. The same condition exists in nearly every big town in the country. No change in city administration nor in even state administration will furnish relief. The national change is what is needed, and a change that will bring about conditions which mean a change in our tax laws.

We have been called upon to absorb the war taxes of the entire old world and are trying to do that. It is not possible to do that. England is not satisfied to get from under her share of the war burden, but wants us to assume the obligation of paying the interest on her debts as well. We say, let England shoulder her share of the responsibility. The net result will be that this country will have more than done her share when she undertakes to pay her debts caused as a result of the war.

Meantime we are carrying the additional load of 7 and a half million of idle men who want to go to work. The quicker President Wilson gives England to understand that we have troubles of our own to take care of the better off we will be. England is trying to get away from the Irish. The quicker Ireland is given its freedom the quicker will England be at peace. There is no reason for England mortgaging all Ireland to pay her debts. Let the other countries shoulder her debt and let's have the whole thing settled.

An interesting discovery was made at Grant's Cemetery recently. When some men of the telegraphic department were at work on the west links they unearthed a stone coffin with a human male skeleton inside. There is nothing to show the date, but it is obviously of great antiquity, and probably belongs to the same remote period as other stone coffins that have been discovered at various times near the old burgh.

Color and Precious Stones.

Diamonds are not always crystal clear, but vary greatly as to color and few of the precious stones are true to color. The famous Hope diamond is a real and most beautiful blue. Green diamonds are found, and others of a lovely crimson, but these are very rare. Black diamonds are common enough. Black pearls are rarer, but are found. Pink pearls are greatly prized.

GRAND ISLAND

MURDER CASE

cause they were too much interested in getting a drink.

And thus passes the Savoy hotel, at Grand Island, one of the landmarks of its time and one of the few of its kind left in Nebraska. Little is known of Vivian Doggett, the woman who has been running the place in recent years, but that she is a bustling looking brunette, with a figure that creates trouble wherever it goes and she has had a good business ever since she took on the Savoy.

BEER BILL BEING HEARD

the coming election there will be many new faces in our national capitol. People are wrought up as they have not been for a long time, and are willing to vote for the man who will make some definite pledges to do away with prohibition. If the present bill becomes a law it will be a long step in the right direction and will change conditions in the right manner. Let us hope that before another issue the bill will become a law of the land.

Sonorous Greetings.

Just a mere passport issued by a New Haven Justice and approved by the government in 1807 bears the following mass of words: Most Serene, Serene, most Puissant, Puissant, High, Illustrious, Noble, Honorable, Venerable, wise and prudent, Lords, Emperors, Kings, Republics, Princes, Dukes, Earls, Barons, Lords, Burgomasters, Schepens, Counsellors, as also Judges, Officers, Justiciaries and Regents of all the good cities and places, whether Ecclesiastical or Secular, who shall see these patents, or hear them read."

Some Very Rare Coins.

Some United States coins are very rare. There are only three of the gold eagle of 1793 in existence. The government owns one of these. They were made in the first United States mint, in Philadelphia. In 1792 a copper cent with a tiny silver spot was issued. Perhaps none of these is in existence.

A. D. Millhouse, who lived near Murphysboro, Ill., at one time owned the first five-dollar bill issued by the United States treasury. It was No. 1, series A, issued in March, 1862.

Talent Served Him Well.

A story is told that in the time of Frederick the Great there was a soldier who played the fiddle so well that his fame spread. When on guard one day he was asked by Frederick to go to the palace to play for him, the soldier refusing as he would be punished if he left his post. However, when he at last played at the palace the king was so pleased that he gave the soldier honorable discharge from military service.

But She Didn't Enjoy It.

With reference to the recent divorce suit in which the wife told the judge she married her husband so that she could enjoy his bathtub, a correspondent waggishly remarks that the husband seems to have kept her in hot water all right.—Boston Transcript.

Stop!

Using Tobacco

Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.

You know, better than anyone else that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart trouble, indigestion, dizziness, nervousness, insomnia, poor eye sight—these and many other ailments, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco.

Besides it is an expensive, utterly useless habit.

Habit Banished

In 48 to 72 Hours

No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or smoking or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 50 years—Tobacco Reducers will positively remove all cravings for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.

Tobacco Reducers contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is so simple a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better every day.

THEATRICALS

GAYETY RE-OPENS

NEXT SATURDAY

FOR 14 PERFORMANCES

Is Enrolled In The Country-Wide Open Shop Movement

"A Whirl Of Gayety" whirls into the Gayety Theatre for fourteen performances commencing with a Matinee on Saturday, Sept. 2, and partons of that popular playhouse will have the first opportunity to see this new show. Dazzling, sparkling, brilliant electrical effects with a most stupendous production, replete with witty dialogue, syncopated melodies, beautiful girls, singers, dancers and comedians including many striking novelities, have been provided by Irons and Clamora, producers, who have gained fame for their presentation of better entertainment.

Never in the history of the theatre has a more pleasing entertainment been offered to the public. Twenty great big scenes that thrill, amuse, startle and keep you gasping are included.

A cast of stars recruited from the leading vaudeville and musical comedy fields, each one worthy of individual mention, have been assembled to enact the various roles and who will introduce novel specialties throughout the entertainment, so arranged that they will form part of the narrative. Very prominent are, Micky Markwood, Hazel Green and her seven Beau Brummels; Nadine Grey, Art Tackman, Leon Devere, Elsie Smith, Billy McGarry, The Duley Twins and the model chorus of twenty beautiful girls. A most gorgeous wardrobe will be exhibited and no one but models could wear the gowns.

To correspond with the necessary reduction in the expense of operating the Gayety, radical reductions in admission prices have been made, all in an effort to confirm with the tendency of the times. The management's desire to establish a true value as compared with the inflation caused by war time conditions which are now but a memory.

And so, to this end, $1.25 seats will be a dollar; dollar seats will be 75c; 75c seats will be 50c and so on. This will place musical burlesque within the means of purchase by every man, woman and child in Omaha.

The organization secured to open the Gayety's season is grand new in every respect, the costumes and scenery being used here for the first time. Ladies' special priced tickets will be offered at every week day matinee.

Next Thursday at 10 A. M. the box-office will open, seats being on sale for two weeks in advance. Season reservations may also be made.

"LOOPS THE DEATH GAP LOOP"

"Dare-Devil" Babcock, the $1,000 a week sensational thrill, "loops the death gap loop" daily at Krug Park at 9 p. m. Babcock is the highest priced sensational thrill before the American public, and his name is known all around the world as the standard set for dangerous thrills. Babcock, on a bicycle, hurls at express train speed down an incline 115 feet long, loops a 28 foot loop. As he is standing on his head at the top of the big loop, the death trap of 28 feet falls out, Babcock, with terrific speed, rushes down the other side of the loop and is hurled 25 feet thru the death gap. This is the most dangerous thrill ever attempted by man and is attracting thousands of people to Krug Park nightly.

Moving picture film of the big "Movie Ball" and the "Bathing Girls Beauty Contest" will be shown at Krug Park in near future. All local talent is in the film.

Wedding Days in Holland.

In orderly Holland, where everything happens by rule, the different classes of society choose different days of the week on which to be married. For some unknown reason Monday is society's day and marriage fees for that day amount to a sum approximate to $24. On Saturdays the charge is $2, or nothing at all if the couple do not wish a separate ceremony, and are willing to join a group of 20 couples. At these group marriages, the clerk reads the service of all the couples making the response in chorus.

This Rapid Age.

Men's business requires haste. The average business and professional man gets in a hurry and gets dyspepsia. He walks in a hurry and gets the flu. He does business in a hurry and becomes a bankrupt. He marries in a hurry and forgets it in a hurry. He makes his will in a hurry and leaves a legal contest. He dies in a hurry and goes to the devil—and his tribe increases.—Exchange

Long Thumb—Strong Will.

If the top joint of your thumb is long, it shows that you have good will power. Well-developed reasoning faculties are possessed by those people who have thumbs the second joints of which are long. Thumbs that work easily are owned by careless, happy-go-lucky, spendthrift individuals. A stiff, firm-jointed thumb, however, shows that the person is keen, tactful, self-possessed and cautious—the sort of man who will get on in the world.

Earning His Money.

Tommy has a little friend who acts as chauffeur when they go for a ride in his toy car. One day Tommy went into his uncle's home to get warm leaving Tommy on the curb as usual. It was a cold day and the uncle remonstrated, getting him to go out and bring him up with him's all right," replied Tommy. "He will have to get used to it or he won't get his twenty cents a week."

Mixup Was Too Much for Him.

Chester could not understand why Lloyd was called his half-brother. It was explained to him—his father had married twice. He couldn't seem to grasp the idea however. Lloyd soon married and was later divorced, all of which mystified Chester greatly. But when Lloyd married again his bewilderment was complete. "Dad," he implored, "what relationship is Lloyd to us now?"

Splendid Specimens of Jade.

A Chinese custom is to place a piece of jade in the mouth of a person on his death. The Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York contains a fine collection of specimens of jade from Chinese tombs. In the Indian museum collection of jades there is a large bowl on which a family of lapidaries in the employ of emperors of Delhi were engaged in engraving for three generations. It is priceless.
