DEGENERATE WOULD MURDER TWIN BABES

ENORMITY OF CRIME SHOCKS OMAHA

Cold Blooded Hellishness of Perpetrators Begins to Sink Into Minds of People Who Are Expected to Prosecute Them.

The attempt to murder two new born babies in an old cistern at Thirty-third and California streets is being taken pretty lightly, considering the enormity of the crime. A week ago children and some of our venturesome newspaper reporters found twin babes that had been carelessly thrown into an old cistern at the above address, apparently with the hope of snuffing out their young lives and forever burying the crime they undertook to commit.

For cold blooded hellishness it was about the most ferocious crime that has ever been attempted in Omaha. The fact that the two babies were saved from death and are living and healthy examples of what might have been makes the deed the more atrocious. At the Methodist hospital, where the youngsters are being cared for, it is stated that they are perfect babes in every respect and give promise of growing up to put to shame the guilty parents who are responsible for the attempt to murder them both.

In the city jail "Doctor" H. S. Kent languishes, held under bond of $15,000, for investigation. Although specific charges of attempted murder have not been placed against this degenerate human being, it is said he will be held on such a charge in the near future. It has been practically admitted that Miss Louise Boeke, who lives with her mother at that address, is the mother of the twins. She is still bed-ridden as the result of a sudden illness which many say was caused by the birth of these two babes.

There is a disposition among some of those connected with the whole affair to defend Kent, and even to minimize the crime that was undertaken when the two babes were placed in the cistern where they would soon have died. The young mother, apparently not really understanding the enormity of the crime, and still weak from the effects of her illness, is beginning to realize what has happened, and is said to be ready to take the babes to her arms. The developments that come with nature are beginning to have their effects, it is stated, and physicians who have gone into the case say the mother of the twins will soon take them to her arms and nourish them in the manner provided by nature.

In the meantime, what shall be done with Kent is a conundrum, even with our well versed county attorney. Kent has persistently declared his innocence and maintains he will not be tried in the newspapers. It will be interesting, in view of his close relation to the stricken mother and her family, to watch developments.

It is said Miss Boeke, who is apparently willing to admit motherhood of the twin babes, is willing to marry Kent, and it has been suggested such a marriage would be the only sane manner in which to solve the case. The question of prosecution, however, would not be settled by such a marriage. Those who have given the matter consideration feel that the crime has been too great to let it pass over unpunished.

Talk has been heard that the girl mother did not realize her real condition, and it has even been stated she does not know of her own knowledge that she is mother of the tots. Such talk is all bunk, and every person of responsible age knows better. There is enough evidence to show that this "Doc" Kent is a criminal of the highest order, and it would be only an emphasis of the crime with which he is charged to let him go unpunished.

It has been pretty conclusively proven who are the guilty parties to this crime, and it is no time to spare any of them. It has been hinted that a third party may show up before the investigation is complete, and that this third party may put a new light on the matter. But that sort of talk does not get anybody anywhere.

MYSTERY GIRL ENJOYS ANOTHER WEEK OF TERRIBLE PUBLICITY

Just as Miss Moissette's Slayer Was Ready to Be Prosecuted, That Young Lady Appears on Scene—Jay Trapp
All Shot Up.

Alice Moissette is not the "mystery girl" at all and, instead of being dead, she is very much alive and happily married. She is living on the farm over at East Peru, Ia., where she is very busy taking care of her own business. Incidentally, Tom Porter has been keeping the Kansas City Star well filled about Dale Mann, held in the city jail for investigation in connection with the murder of the "mysterious girl." And to make everything better, Jay Trapp, who has been working on the case ever since the Washington county woman who was elected county attorney came to the front with her big talk, has lost his job as special mystery girl detective.

Trapp says he had the whole thing well in hand and ready to lay his case before County Attorney Shotwell when Alice Moissette showed up a person and blew up the whole business. Some of our artistic newspaper reporters, who have put to shame a lot of the sleuth work of Mr. Ringer's "high-class robbers," have been making it pretty hard for the police boys. They got into telephonic communication with Alice and Alice said she wanted it very distinctly understood that Dale Mann did not murder her and that she was still very much alive and very busy raising a family and a big garden, with some very fine spuds.

The county attorney woman from Blair seems to have got a bum steer from somewhere. She made a lot of fuss about how she could give out a lot of information about the murder and how she was handicapped because nobody would assist her. Now she has gone back to Blair, where she will soon start on her campaign for re-election to office.

From all appearances a lot of fresh clues will have to be dug up before the identity of the "mystery girl" is fully established.

FLETCHER NEAL RETURNS TO FARMING BUSINESS

O. F. Neal, whose principal business for all of his young life has been that of a farmer, has been sent home to harvest and market the crops. Neal had some differences with the law a few months ago and became a victim of the degenerates he had defended. He was given a sentence of from one to seven years, despite the fact that there was no real evidence to show that he was in any way a party to the pilfering of automobiles, which was a popular pastime at that time.

Neal has been paroled to harvest the big crops that were raised on his big farm at Peru. Although his parole is given out as being for thirty days, it is not expected that he will be called upon to return to confinement at Lincoln. Those who know Neal best have stood by him during his troubles, and the fact that he has been forced to serve but three months of a seven years' assignment to employment with Billy Fenton is the best evidence of his innocence of a serious crime.

MRS. CALFAS HAS HAMMER OUT FOR SENATOR HITCHCOCK

Dr. Jennie Calfas has her hammer out for Senator Hitchcock. She says she will oppose him because he is wet, but those who are familiar with the dealings between the senator and "Doc" Calfas think that is not the cause of Jennie's grievance. Jennie used to be supreme physician of the Woodmen Circle. She was jolted out of that job and the World-Herald had some interesting things to say about the affair. Then Jennie brought a $15,000 libel suit which she lost.

From all indications Jennie never got over that jolt. We also doubt whether or not she will get very far as democratic committee woman in this state.

Jim McAuley continued to loaf around his old Sixteenth street haunts. He was one of the city's leading financiers.

CAMEL CIGARETTE STORY BRINGS OUT MORE DENIALS

Fresh denials of the story about a leper being taken from the Camel cigarette factory have been heard during the last week. Recently a story received widespread circulation to the effect that a leper had been removed from that factory and taken to the government colony for these incurables.

By tobacco men it is said that leprosy in a cigarette factory would be a very serious thing because of the great number of users of cigarettes. The Camel people are now putting on a strong advertising campaign, but nothing is being said in these advertisements about a leper being removed from their factory.

BRANDEIS HORSE WINS WITH MARVIN CHILDS UP

Hal Mahone, George Brandeis' black horse, and a classy pacer, took the Elks Home stake, a $3,000 race, at Columbus last Tuesday, the best time being 2:04 1/2. Marvin Childs, veteran driver, was in the sulky and drove a splendid pace.

The first heat went to Royal Earl, Hal Mahone getting third place, a misfortune that is charged to some pocketing other drivers managed to work out. In the next heat, however, Childs' horse had it easy, and in the third heat paced away from the whole field of eight, taking the race in fine style.

Brandeis' men have been grooming Hal Mahone all season, but this was the first opportunity the horse has had to make a showing. It is stated that Marvin Childs, well known in Omaha, made an excellent drive and made some of the eastern drivers look like novices in this race.

By horsemen who have followed Hal Mahone, it is said this horse is one of the real comers in the big field of pacers.

from some of the big Canadian banana fields. Some bad railroad diversions figured in the trouble.

Fred Anheuser was considering a number of offers recently received by him of old clothes. Fred said that hunger was the mother of invention, whatever that is.

Dan Brady, well known Leavenworth street electrical engineer, was considering putting in some new brands of Ford parts in order that his friends might be saved much annoyance.

Will Carey, well known paving promoter, predicted the prices on country roads would be materially reduced next year. He was considered good authority on such matters.

HELPLESSNESS

Events fast transpiring these days are proving the utter helplessness of J. Dean Ringer as superintendent of police. With several of his men under arrest for highway robbery, some of them pleading guilty, and many more slated for the same treatment, Mr. Ringer continues to put forth his bold front about what a great reformer he is and what he has accomplished.

The people of Omaha would probably feel much better if Mr. Ringer would take them a little more into his confidence. With even his chief of police under fire, in connection with some remarkable crimes, in which the federal government has been forced to take a hand, Ringer continues to put out the bunk about what he is going to do and how he is going to do it.

We heard much about how the town was going to be cleaned up and all that stuff when this crowd of reformers came into power. What apparently is needed more than anything else is a cleaning out in the various departments that have been built up, not only by Ringer, but by some other heads of departments.

The crux of the whole thing lies in the bull-headedness of our superintendent of police and his system of loading up the department with inexperienced youngsters and with a bunch of thieves being promoted to high places in the department.

It is going some when the county attorney is forced to go right into the police station and arrest officers for alleged participation in robberies of our big stores. Of all the things that were said even of Steve Maloney and Al Kugel, they never were put face to face with any such condition as that witnessed by the people of Omaha recently.

TWO MORE OFFICERS IN ROBBERY CASES

Three of Ring Already on Way to the Penitentiary.

RINGER'S FAVORITES CAUGHT IN NET

Systematic Robberies of Big Stores Established Under Present
Police Administration Revealed Through Efforts of Owners' Private Detectives—Loot $50,000.

Events concerning doings in police affairs have come fast during the last week. Several policemen have been arrested for taking part in some of the unholy things that have come to light recently, three specialized officers have pleaded guilty to robbery and have been sent to the penitentiary, and it is stated half a dozen more police officers, all working under Mr. Ringer, our great "reformer," are scheduled for arrest before the thing is over.

The discovery of the big ring that has been doing business at the large department stores and which is credited with having stolen some $50,000 worth of goods, is credited to Larry Finn, head of the Brandeis stores' detective department and two of his associates in the other large stores. In this connection, it is stated, these men, after they had produced all the evidence and presented it to Mr. Rigger, had considerable trouble in securing action before the guilty parties had time to get their "plant" transferred to another place.

No less than eight city detectives have been put on the pan in connection with this work and at least six of them, it is stated, will be called to account if the law goes its regular course. Six of them are appointees of Mr. Ringer, and are given credit for being ringleaders in the work.

The system employed by the A. D. T. men was simple enough, but was effective for a long time. In fact, it is said, for years it has been the habit of A. D. T. watchmen to enter stores at will and even sergeants of police who entered these stores while A. D. T. men were there thought nothing of the matter and nothing ever came of it. The present ring is said to have been working for nearly two years, or ever since the present police administration came into power. Intermingled with those under arrest or under suspicion are two or three men who were thrown off the police force by the former administration because they were unable to explain some of the things that were credited to them.

The latest arrests, those of Haley and Bosen, police chauffeurs, takes the business directly to the police station and will probably give an opportunity for others not heretofore implicated to make some explanations. How far the ramifications of these two men went is not stated, but those who have given the matter attention are wondering how police chauffeurs, who use police cars, garaged at the police station, could get away with their activity without somebody higher up being wise to their work.

Later in the week came the announcement that some of the South Side officers were also placed in the limelight. It appears that charges have been set out that some of them were accepting large sums for protection by operators of distilleries and home breweries. Several of these places have been known to exist on the South Side for a long time, and none of them have been molested.

Raisin whisky and home brewed beer have been on the market on the South Side almost as freely as before the state went dry. The beer has been selling freely for 25 and 50 cents a bottle, while the whisky has been retailed at 25 cents the drink. Dozens of these places have run openly and, if all reports are true, some of those presumed to enforce the law have been financially interested in the manufacture of the beverages.

To live in other departments of the police force up, Sergeant Thestrup, another of Mr. Ringer's pets, has been charged with employing inhuman tactics in a downtown cafe. Incidentally, a customer of the place Thestrup roughed up is missing $90 in money which he said he laid on a

MUNICIPAL GAS PRICES SKYWARD WHEN MR. HOWELL TAKES PLANT

Mayor Smith's Hobby Proves Expensive One When City Undertakes to Operate Six Million Dollar Lemon—Water Plant Man Takes No Chances.

During the week the good people of Omaha have been again reminded that they recently bought a big gas "lemon" for five million dollars, when they were notified by R. Beecher Howell, who will operate the gas plant, that they are to have their pockets again touched by a raise in the price of gas.

The gas plant was a hobby of Mayor Smith and it is said he considered its acquirement the crowning event of his official career when Omaha secured control of the plant. And to show how he feels about it, Mayor Smith has given it out cold turkey that Howell's action in having the price raised was without excuse.

When the city bought this old bunch of junk it sure bit off a big piece of bad lemon, as stated before. The plant has been steadily deteriorating for several years and it is said that a bond issue of $1,000,000 will be necessary to put it in shape to serve the people.

When the city came into possession of the plant it was found there was no money with which to operate it, and not even enough money to meet the first pay roll. Mr. Howell says that after he has operated the plant for a few years he may be able to make it a paying proposition. In the meantime, however, he admits, the people will simply have to stand for the new drain on their pocketbooks. He says he will not be hampered by lack of money and will not try to do the impossible.

Howell has a pretty good idea of how to operate this sort of a concern and what he says may be depended upon, so far as the cost to the people goes. Omaha gas users were pretty well pleased when they got the price down to where it was before the city purchased the plant, and it is going to be a bad pill for them to swallow to have the price raised on the top of laying out six million dollars for a bunch of junk.

BRYAN SIDESTEPS PROHIBITION.

Although the prohibitionists nominated William J. Bryan for president and did it all in good faith, Bryan sidestepped and refused to be a candidate.

About all Bryan has been doing for the last ten years has been to foster prohibition onto the democratic party. When he made his last and supreme effort at San Francisco two weeks ago he was turned down by that party in no certain manner. Apparently feeling that Bryan was a real prohibitionist, the party of that faith nominated him at Lincoln a week later for president.

It must have been a bitter pill for Bryan. He quickly declared that he was not a prohibitionist and that he wished to still be aligned with the democrats, although he admitted he would vote just as he pleased next November.

It is a sad ending for a man who for thirty years has posed as being honest. By his action this year he has shown himself in his true colors. In other words he has proved that he can not be trusted. The remarkable thing is that he has been able to get away with his rough business so long and still retain his standing in one of the dominant parties of the country.

This editorial is not printed as a parting shot at a man who has passed out of the public mind, but rather as a valedictory of a man who has been able to work his deceit on the public for so long and make the people like it.

The world has known few fakers who have been as successful in their lines as William J. Bryan.

ANOTHER KICK ON GARBAGE.

Now comes another kick on the present system of disposing of garbage. The neighbors living in the vicinity of DeBolt Place, where Henry Pollock has his hog feeding yards, have made a strong protest against Pollock's hog lot. A hundred of them have gone into the courts to secure an injunction against Pollock and his garbage fed hogs.

Pollock's garbage vicissitudes have been many, but he has stuck to the business. The city of Omaha creates a lot of garbage in a month. Pollock has been picking it up and fattening our daily ration of pork on it. It is said that Pollock himself is not a consumer of pork, because of religious scruples, but he is not unwilling that the ordinary Gentile should have all the pork he wants. For that reason he has been putting out a great many hogs fattened up on Omaha garbage.

A lot for dumping garbage is not a very pleasing thing for the nostrils of neighbors, but it had been supposed that DeBolt Place was well beyond the line of grief for such things and that nobody would have any kick coming. That is said to have been Mr. Pollock's reason for moving out there with his garbage contract.

But the action of 100 neighbors in again bringing the garbage question to the fore, it may again have to be decided to burn the city's garbage instead of using it for hog and chicken feed.

CARTOONING GOVERNOR COX.

It is refreshing to watch the political cartoons these days. There is a variation of style that makes them worth looking at. Governor Cox, the democratic candidate for president, is coming in for his share of them and such artists as Briggs and Darling ("Ding") are able to put the finishing touches on the wet end of the Cox pictures.

A recent cartoon pictured Cox doing sentry duty with a bottle in his pocket. Of course there is no such thing as a wet and dry issue, but some of the republican papers are disposed to make it an issue just the same. To those papers who have taken up the issue and who declare Cox is wet, it has been suggested that they are making a lot of votes for the Ohio governor.

It is reliably stated that a great many republicans are wet and that if their leaders insist on making liquor an issue they may find it necessary to vote for Cox this year. In other words, it is treading dangerous ground to make sport of the governor's leaning toward personal liberty.

It is a little laughable to watch those opposing Governor Cox in their wild attempts to find something against him. As a general proposition it is going to be pretty hard to dig up any good reason for electing Senator Harding and all the alleged issues thus far put forward by his supporters have the appearance of boomerangs, which will become very injurious before the campaign is over.

PROOF AGAINST THE PROFITEERS.

If any proof were needed of profiteering by everybody who has had an opportunity to squeeze the public it has been furnished by Uncle Sam, who has just issued his annual financial statement showing that federal taxes for the fiscal year ended June 30 amounted to five and a half Billions of dollars. Of this amount nearly four billions were collected on incomes and excess profits. That means that 80 per cent of this immense amount was taken on money lawlessly earned by profiteers. Of course a very large percentage of this money never got into the records and the government was beat out of an immense sum.

Right here in Nebraska the government collected nearly seventeen million dollars from the profiteers. The official statement calls this excess profits taxes. But it is what the profiteers accomplished. In Nebraska these fellows garnered more than three times as much as North and South Dakota combined.

This statement of the government's tax collections gives the best possible conception of what has been going on. If the records were gone into a little further it might be learned who all these big profiteers were. It might be interesting to look over the big landlords, who just now are trying to dodge the charges being made against them of excessive rental collections.

Incidentally, Uncle Sam's big war debt will soon be wiped out if these collections keep up very long. The country issued seven billions of war bonds, and the collections for a single year were five and a half billion dollars. Five years of such collections would nearly wipe out our national debt.

table just as Thestrup came up. Altogether, things are getting about as rotten as they possibly can get and business interests of Omaha are beginning to wonder whether they will have to wait another year before a change is made in the personnel at the city hall.

LOSS OF DR. JENKINS WOULD BE SERIOUS ONE

It is said Dr. D. E. Jenkins is seriously considering an offer of employment by an eastern university. If he were to leave Omaha it would be a serious blow, not only to the city, but also to the University of Omaha, of which he was the founder and has been the president since it started. Dr. Jenkins is a splendid man and a hustler. His efforts on behalf of the university have been made without remuneration and he has at times filled various chairs in the absence of staff professors. Omahans who are familiar with Dr. Jenkins' work will doubtless make every effort to retain him in the city.

FETTERMAN'S BODY TO BE INTERRED AT ARLINGTON

The body of Major A. D. Fetterman, veteran of the Spanish-American and European wars, is to be buried in Arlington cemetery, Washington, D. C. Fetterman was a member of the Omaha Guards when the Spanish war broke out, and was also a reporter on the World-Herald staff. After a long time with that paper, Fetterman studied and graduated at law. He was at one time a colonel on the governor's staff.

When the United States entered the European war he entered the big army with the rank of major. He saw active duty in Europe and was located at Coblenz when the war ended. He died from an attack of influenza just as he was ready to start home after the armistice was signed.

Fetterman had a host of Omaha friends and was considered one of the ablest descriptive writers in the city.

KENNEDY SHEET STILL CRACKING MR. HITCHCOCK

The Western Laborer, which so long thrived on its work of double-crossing union labor, has taken another jab at Senator Hitchcock. That paper again attacks the Hitchcock war record. All that is known of Kennedy's war record is that he held a fat job under the government during the war and is still a political pensioner.

Once a well known Omaha newspaper man saw him jamming a bundle of money into his pocket when he was leaving the offices of a well known Omaha corporation which was enjoying a strike of its employees. If you want to know anything about Kennedy ask the members of the Printers' union.

There May Be Delay in Moving Your Telephone

If you order your telephone moved next week you may be told to expect a delay in getting it done.

Nearly half a million other telephone users in the United States will move their telephones this month, too. And for all of them many carloads of wire and other materials will be needed.

A general shortage of materials, as well as a lack of sufficient transportation facilities is holding back factory output and the telephone companies can't get enough supplies.

In this emergency it will be greatly appreciated if you will order the least possible changes in your telephone equipment. And when you need to have something done please let us know as far in advance as possible.

ALFRED KENNEDY IS BRANDED WAR SLACKER

Tenants who have joined themselves in the cause to oppose another increase in apartment rentals have taken Alfred Kennedy to task as a war slacker. They adopted a resolution unanimously putting the war slacker stamp on him at a recent meeting.

Kennedy is president of the Building Owners and Managers' association and has been a leading light in the recent boosting of rentals to tenants. Incidentally, it is stated, that, although the war is over, distinct action is to be taken to bring this matter before the government with a request for action.

It is also stated that a lot of other names might be mentioned in this connection and the chances are that further action may result as a result of the tenants' efforts.

KONECKY RELATES HIS TENANCY OF APARTMENT

Isaac Konecky, editor of the Jewish Bulletin, one of the victims of apartment house conditions, is one of the defenders of the Tenants' league which is opposing another increase in rents. Konecky recently wrote a letter for the "Public Pulse" column of the World-Herald that is a fine description of conditions in Omaha. It is worth reading by even the landlords. Like some of the rest of the victims of the intolerable tenant conditions, Konecky has felt the pinch. His letter is worth reading.

WILL BE BOON TO INVALID

Independence, Comfort, and Exercise
All Provided in New Chair Propelled by Electricity.

A new era of independence, comfort and exercise is promised to invalids in an electrically-propelled chair that is now being made by a firm of surgical engineers in London.

In appearance it is little more than a very comfortable, luxuriously-suspended bath chair or invalid's carriage. The propulsive motion is electricity. It is silent, travels a distance of over twenty miles on a single charge and has four speeds, ranging from a crawl up to five miles per hour.

The control is said to be so simple that any person, no matter with what disabilities, can sit in the carriage and start right away, and it is fitted with reverse on all speeds. It is only necessary to hold the steering lever with the left hand and gently push over the controller handle with the right hand. The use of the carriage renders an invalid independent of chair man or attendant, and the cost of upkeep is said to be trivial.

Irish Travel Stops.

The tourist resorts of Ireland—the Lakes of Killarney and Glengarriff—have suffered greatly during the war and the resumption of normal conditions, with freedom of travel for pleasure, will be required to bring back their old-time prosperity. So Queens-town and, to a smaller degree, the city of Cork has been affected by the entire cessation of the extensive passenger traffic to and from the United States. Queenstown was the principal port for Irish emigration to the United States, and the change in that respect is highly significant. There are more young men in Ireland today than there were for very many years before the war. Emigration, which for the ten years ending March 1, 1911, averaged 38,808 from all Ireland, fell in 1917 to 2,111, and in 1918 to 930 natives of Ireland. Embarkation of emigrants and others from Queenstown which amounted to 20,583 in 1913, and 21,430 in 1914, stopped altogether in November, 1914.

Snakes Friends of Farmer.

A correspondent who is interested in snakes as well as flowers and birds and the other more popular things in nature writes that he has gratifying success in locating snakes by merely listening for their rustling in the dry leaves. If one's ears are specially trained for snake noises there is no good reason why this method should not be really practical. Unquestionably the majority of wood wanderers are almost blind in this matter of snakes. Unless we almost step on him we seldom know that he is lurking near at hand and remaining very still in the hope that he will not be noted. All our snakes are practically defenseless. They are not only inoffensive and timid creatures, but also highly useful friends of the farmer. Possibly the baby snakes are in less danger than the adults. The little fellows are less conspicuous, and, as before noted, they can hide in very small refuges.

"I never dreamed he'd holler at me."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Formosa has been peopled with wild tribes of probably Malayan and Polynesian origin who are nearest in point of resemblance to the Dyaks of Borneo. The "raw" savages, as the Chinese term them, live much as their ancestors did centuries ago, while the "ripe" savages, living on the borderland between their wild kin and Chinese settlers, have more or less assimilated Chinese ways of life.

There are eight main groups of savage tribes on the island, each group with fairly well-defined differences of dress, speech and customs, and in many cases the tribes that make up a group display minor differences among themselves.—National Geographic Magazine

Using Tobacco

Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.

You know, better than anyone else that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart trouble, indigestion, dizziness, nervousness, insomnia, poor eye sight—these and many other disorders, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco. Besides it is an expensive, utterly useless habit.

Habit Banished

In 48 to 72 Hours

No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing a plug or fine cut for a month or 50 years—Tobacco Redeemer will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose. Tobacco Redeemer contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

SEND Coupon for Proof. Tell us all about the deadly effects of tobacco and how easily it can be quit. We will also send you copies of letters from convinced users telling how this simple, home-treatment freed them absolutely from the habit. Just mail coupon—or a postal will do.

GAYETY OPENS SOON

In another three weeks Old Man Johnson will throw open the doors to the Gayety theater and will bring all the girls and everything to Omaha for another season of frivolity and good times.

Johnson will soon return from his summer's outing up among the Michigan lakes and work will at once commence renovating this popular playhouse. Johnson writes that he expects everything to be spic and span for the opening which will occur August 21 with one of the popular shows that make up this big circuit.

Incidentally, the Gayety owners have recently taken another long lease on this popular priced playhouse, which means that they expect to be in business for a long time to come.

WHY NOT have your watch repaired right? Brodegaard Bros. will do this for you. They know how. Strictly union shop.—Adv.

ROURKES HIT THEIR STRIDE

Out at Rourke park these days may be seen some classy baseball, because the reorganized Rourkes have again hit their stride. There have been some recent acquisitions to both the outfield and infield that have boosted Omaha in the percentage column until they are back into fourth place, with their stock going up every day.

Cuban Palmero, who had a few bad games, is again putting them over the plate in real fashion and making them all hard to catch. Incidentally, Palmero got into the game as a pinch hitter in the ninth inning of a game, and won for the Rourkes against a one run lead with which the visitors had hoped to romp away with the game.

Cap. Lelivelt, who knows the game from bat boy up, has been a popular manager, and has his crew working all the time. He himself does some heavy work from the initial bag, and is supreme as a coacher. Incidentally, he plays all the departments of the game and is a good hitter when hits are needed.

IF YOUR WATCH don't keep time, bring it to us for correction. We know how. Strictly union shop.—BRODEGAARD BROS.—Adv.

KRUG PARK BUSY PLACE

Krug park has had another busy week. Among the big things out there was the visit of Nebraska newspaper men, who were given a ride on everything of which this popular summer resort boasts. They did the giant see-saw, the baby dolls, the dancing floor and everything else they could get their hands on. They were busy at the weiner stand and licked up near beer just like they used to swallow the real stuff in Chris Lyck's old corner stand.

During the coming week the management announces some good things in music. The swimming pool, which has been one of the popular departments, will continue to hold open house. This has been a popular department all summer and it is estimated that 50,000 persons have already taken advantage of the opportunity to get into this up-to-date pool for a swim.

EMPRESS ATTRACTIONS

William Russell, whose vigorous portrayal of dramatic roles in Fox photoplays has won for him a vast following among motion picture patrons, is coming to the Empress theater Sunday in "Twins of Suffering Creek," a new production, which deals with life as it is lived in a little far western mining town beyond the pale of the law. In a quarrel with a notorious character, Jim Pemberton, Bill Lark, on the turn of a card, is given five days to live. How he uses the time granted and how he wins the love of the girl who has been his guiding star, is the principal theme of the play, which is from the pen of Ridgwell Cullum, the well known author of western stories.

For the last half of the week, the photoplay attraction will be "Dollar for Dollar," Frank Keenan's latest feature. The theme of "Dollar for Dollar," by Ethel Watts Mumford, is based on reprisal. What is the payment of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth?" Can one htolen dollar have the same value as another dishonest dollar? Is there sweetness in revenge? Is there happiness or peace of mind?

Frank Keenan enacts the role of a millionaire philanthropist. His methods of acquiring wealth have ever been questioned by the social set in which he is a commanding figure, yet in the world of finance, he has the reputation of being a man without a soul. He is blackmailed by Mrs. Marteen, a beautiful widow with a charming daughter to support. The fortune that was once hers was lost through the shady deals of Keenan and his business rival and she decided to use blackmail methods to make these men pay. What happens when she makes one man an enemy and of the other a lover forms the main theme of "Dollar for Dollar."

The cast includes Kathleen Kirkham, Harry Von Meter, Kate Van Buren, Jay Belasco, Gertrude Claire and others.

FOUND OLD FRIEND ON BOARD

Hope Followed Despair When Returning Doughboy Discovered Copy of Famous Sea Story.

I came aboard the transport reviling my luck, says Robert Palfrey Utter in the Review. My locker and bed roll were in France and I had neglected to bid them good-by; I had nothing but musette and kit bag, in which I had been living for a month. The limping old Mudjokeewis was the shabbiest tub in the service, slow, devoid of comfort. Her engines took a day off every week. Her smoking room was given over to clacking typewriters which manufactured colored tissue paper orders for the decoration of the main companionway. The white-and-gold music room was no place for one who was constitutionally unable to derive solace from craps or poker. But when I discovered that the ship's library had survived the ravages of war, I began to see the hand of providence. As I reviewed the backs of the 50-odd most respectable volumes in tough brown calf, my locker and bed roll "fell from my back and began to tumble, and so continued to do" till I thought of them no more. I was free as air in spite of the lively I wore. I tossed a polished copy of "Mr. Midshipman Easy" into my berth, cast off my shining greaves and brass-mounted regalia, chinned myself on the T-iron that ran across the top of the state room, swung my legs over the edge of the berth and dropped after them. I opened the port hole to the deck and the summer night, disposed tobacco and other necessities in the wall pockets, started the fire in a well-crusted briar bowl, and forthwith I was in company with an old friend whom I had not seen for years—"By 9 o'clock that evening Mr. Jack Easy was safe on board his majesty's sloop Harpy."
