

ATTORNEY BREEN MAY BRING OUT SENSATION

Private Bondsmen Qualify for Million, but Taxed for $43,000.

"FIXED" CHARGES MAY BE HEARD

Monumental Chicanery in This Paving Contract is Charged by Persons Who Are Investigating Whole Business—
Much Evidence May Be Heard

The injunction proceeding brought by Attorney John P. Breen for one of his clients against the consummation of contracts recently let to the Allied Contractors for paving Douglas county roads promises to bring out some remarkable revelations before all the testimony is presented to the court. Enough has already been produced to make a holy show of the men who are responsible for the spending of the taxpayers' money thus far.

The big item for consideration is why these contracts should have been summarily let without competition and why they were railroaded through before the people had an opportunity to give the situation the once over.

As a matter of truth, it is considered by experts in road building that this has been one of the most monumental bits of chicanery ever perpetrated on the law-abiding people of Douglas county. So much has come out about the business within the last two weeks that everybody is wondering whether they have just been dreaming or whether they have quietly watched a bunch of public high-jackers divide the spoils. One of the men interested in the business is quoted as saying that his institution wanted nothing to do with any job that was not "fixed" in advance.

Although the amended petition filed by Attorney Breen covers only legal points, many new matters are expected to appear on the surface before the hearing is concluded. Among other matters is that of the bond given by the Allied concern for the completion of the work. This bond was signed by John W. Towle, Archie Love and a fellow named Rasmussen, employed by Mr. Towle's office. Affidavits state that they are perfectly able to qualify for the one million one hundred thousand dollars which is necessary in the case of receiving acceptance of a bid for $550,000 for this paving. The county assessor's office returns show that Mr. Towle has $3,900 of personal property and no real estate. The assessor raised it to $5,000. Archie Love's real estate is taxed for $27,800 and the improvements at $10,000.

If these men are honestly able to qualify for $1,100,000 they are beating Douglas county out of a lot of taxes because they are being taxed on property which they say is worth only about $45,000.

This is the firm that is putting out "bitulithic" pavement, a patented article on which there is a royalty, which figures in the price of the pavement. Mr. Breen has alleged irregularities and fraud, which he expects to prove during the proceedings. This "bitulithic" stuff has been frozen out of the state of Oregon. The legislature of that state passed laws which make it impossible to get away with it.

When the bill before the Oregon legislature first came up for consideration Mr. Warren, who owns the patent on this "bitulithic" stuff, took his lobby out there to stop it. During the seances which followed whole gangs had drunken orgies and a lot of money is said to have passed into new hands. The original bill was one which would prevent any "royalty" paving being used. It was finally modified, after Mr. Warren and his crowd had hounded the legislative hall a long time. Under the modification, restrictions were put on "royalty" paving which practically forced the "bitulithic" crowd to get out of the state and let the legitimate pavers do the business.

Some remarkable conditions are being brought out regarding the deal in Douglas county. One of these is the fact that no great handicap would have been placed on Douglas county taxpayers had the county board insisted on all brick paving instead of part of it being composition or "bitulithic." Under the contracts let, something like sixty-five miles may be laid. If all brick had been insisted upon, fifty-five miles could have been built.

The life of brick paving is about forty years as against five years for

MELADY OUT AGAIN WITH OLD BUNK ABOUT PURSE

Stock Yards Fumes Put Into Print
Again About Offer for Big Prize Fight.

A St. Paul dispatch says Gene Melady has offered $25,000 for a match between Georges Carpentier and Mike Gibbons, St. Paul bidder for championship honors. This is another one of those things that Gene puts out periodically for publicity purposes.

Three years ago Melady got into print with a $15,000 offer for a fight between Miske and Fulton at Denver. Gene has about as much chance to pull off a fight in Denver as a snowball has in the hot place. Unfortunately for Gene the Denver promoters were not letting any outsiders butt into their game out in that neck of the woods. Out in Denver the insiders said Gene had been inhaling some of the South Side stock yards fumes and they put him on the bum.

Six months ago Melady again got some publicity when he gave it out that he was ready to put up $21,000 for a go between O'Dowd and Gibbons. Of course he had no chance to pull off such a match but he got into print and that was worth the money, he said. And now comes the bluff about a Gibbons-Carpentier match. Can you beat it?

It is said Ernie Holmes is also ready to make a bid for some of these big affairs. He is credited with being ready to put up $50,000 for one of these matches. After while we will be hearing of Jack Lewis raising the price to 75,000 bucks. And a lot of people are actually falling for this stuff. We expect soon to hear that Guy Buckles has "come back."

COMMITTEE FILINGS ARE AROUSING MUCH INTEREST

Filings for positions on the county central committees of both republican and democratic parties are getting interesting. The business of political parties is conducted by these committees and the women are taking a part in the doings of both parties.

Incidentally, some good things are happening in this connection. Dr. Jennie Calfas wants to be committee woman from her district on the democratic committee. Filed against her is Mrs. James Hanley, wife of our prohibition director, and who is out to make the race for all she is worth. Mrs. Calfas is the woman who was dismissed as supreme physician of the Woodmen Circle a few years ago. While that little affair was going on she had a sick spell at her home. A box of candy she found on her doorstep is said to have cut some figure in the affair. Jennie received much publicity at that time.

"Tuberculosis" Murray, known at the city hall as T. B. Murray, is a candidate in his district. Mickey Harmon, captain of the Creighton football team has filed against Murray. It is believed there will be much of a contest. And there are others.

BRANDEIS HEADS ARE HOME FROM SAN FRAN

Ervine and George Brandeis, who have been spending six weeks in California, are home again, ready to look after the big spring interests of the Brandeis stores. During their absence a number of new improvements and additions have been made to the big store, including additional elevator service to the new fourth floor which the institution will occupy in the future; in addition to the three floors and basement below.

Only the three top floors of this building are left for office purposes. With the continual growth of the business of this big mercantile concern it is said that all seven floors of the building will be occupied for store purposes within the next few years.

JONES HOMEWARD BOUND AFTER SAN FRAN VISIT

Joseph Jones, who counts all the money for The Associated Press in Chicago and throughout the Central division of that institution, was in Omaha this week, on his way home from San Francisco. He has been making arrangements for the democratic national convention work of his big news gathering institution. He spent a day with his brother, Owen Jones of this city and called on the editor of The Mediator, whose pay checks he signed for fifteen years. Joe was looking fine. He says the arrangements for the San Francisco convention are ideal and that he expects an immense crowd.

Incidentally, while in San Francisco Jones made preparations for The Associated Press to cover two conventions, in view of a possible split there. It is simply a business proposition, but it shows what this big news gathering concern expects and how it is preparing to meet any emergency.

ALLIANCE HORSEMEN WILL HAVE BIG MEET IN JUNE

Alliance horsemen are to have a big spring meeting in June, when they will put out $6,000 in purses. The Alliance fellows do not do things by halves and when they get the ponies together for three days, beginning June 23, there will sure be something doing.

Fred Myers, one of our own wind jammers, who once drove two of the fastest jockers on Douglas street, is touting the Alliance meet, of which E. L. Bishop is the promoter. Pete Shott, well known highjacker of Alliance, was in the city this week, and he says it is all being put on to entertain the state convention of the Elks which will occur at that time.

One of the feature races will be the open trot or pace for $1,000 on the last day, labeled "Elks Trot or Pace." With the local Elks Water Board well represented out there this ought to be a big race. Another feature will be the "Elks Derby," one and one-eighth miles, for $1,000. There are eighteen events for the three days.

ANDREASON HAS BIG RUN-IN WITH LADIES

Women Turn Loose on Probation Officer Without Investigating.

DONAHUE PAROLE STARTS TROUBLE

Judge Troup Pulls Off Grand Stand Play by Giving Private Letters to Newspaper—Politics Figures in Some of These Doings

A self-constituted committee of Omaha women, who might better stay at home and cook meals for their family, have declared that M. Andreasen, probation officer, is a devil and that he has been turning loose on the respectable women of the city a bunch of wildcats, by means of the parole system. They have held their meetings and got a lot of publicity and made statements which are funny and ludicrous.

At a meeting held this week these good ladies decided that Andreasen had paroled 130 convicts to himself and that he was collecting money from them all and living in high style. Some of our daily newspapers have been giving the affair a lot of space which makes it even better.

As a matter of truth, these women either do not know what they are talking about or they have gone off half-cocked. The whole thing was brought out when "Red" Donahue was paroled a short time ago, in order that he might go to work and support his wife and daughter, who were objects of charity so long as he remained in jail.

There is no disposition to say anything about the young woman who was the alleged victim of Donahue but it may be said in all fairness that these women had better get some information on this subject before they go any further. Andreasen has absolutely no authority to issue pardons. That is something that is up to the mayor, the governor and our district judges. The governor delegated some work to the probation officer which he has been doing without pay. This Donahue case is one of the results of that work.

Judge Troup, who made a grandstand play of the whole business by writing the probation officer a threatening letter and giving it to the newspapers, probably for political purposes, started the whole business. Judge Troup's letter was sent in the usual course of business and, like any other similar court communication, was presumed to be part of the files not for public information. Instead he gave it to the press, which, to say the least, indicates a bit of fine political work, which might affect the coming election for district judges.

Judge Troup can hardly be blamed for wanting the women on his side, but this is the first instance so far as recorded that he has taken advantage of his judicial position to make political capital out of his communications, verbal or otherwise, to other persons connected with the enforcement of law or the betterment of society.

The probation officer's duties are defined in a manner which makes of him a servant of the people pure and simple, and he does not receive any important salary for his efforts. In recent years our judiciary has decided that most of the persons who commit crime can be reclaimed to good society by giving them a chance. In the event of them receiving jail or penitentiary sentences they are paroled and given an opportunity to reform. It is part of the business of the probation officer to see that the conditions of these paroles are not violated.

That is what Andreasen is paid for. The fact that he has 130 persons paroled him is the business of the courts and parole officials. Penitentiary convicts who are paroled receive their liberty after their application is acted on by the parole board, of which the Omaha probation officer is not a member. The idea of the parole board is to empty rather than fill our penitentiaries and to make better men and women out of those who have paid the penalties of crime.

SOCIETY THRILLER! RESULTS WHEN DON M'RAE GOES TO POLICE STATION

Council Bluffs Kid and High Class Flusie Come to Grief When Their Car Wrecks Henshaw Hotel Front—
Just Drunk and Dressed Up

Society received an awful shock Thursday afternoon when it learned of the doings of Donald McRae, who celebrated St. Patrick's evening by jamming up the big show window in front of the Henshaw cafe by reason of his "chauffeur," C. W. Lyon pushing a perfectly good Brown taxicab through it.

From all reports Don was putting on a regular evening, or had been putting it on when he came to grief in the manner described. With Don was one of the Council Bluffs flusies who works in an Omaha department store. Her very large salary and contributions of her friends are said to make it possible for her to pay room rent and eat expensive meals at the cafe of the Grand hotel in Council Bluffs.

Don never does things by halves and when he started out to celebrate the evening of an uproarious St. Patrick's day he kept up his record. He was hitting only the high places when he drove down Farnham street, one of our popular thoroughfares. But Mr. Lyon, who is the boss salesman for Don in the latter's Council Bluffs automobile store, could not see just where the curb line left off and the street itself began. The result was that he hit the rear of one of the Brown cabs and sent it whirling through the Greek hotel where the Henshaw once was operated by Dave O'Brien.

The only trouble was that Don did not get away. When a harness bull overtook them down the street they were all sent to the Omaha police station, where they were given a cell berth until morning. Just what brand of "poontang" Don and his girl friend had been drinking was not mentioned in the charge of "drunk and dressed up" preferred against them, but it apparently had all the kick in it that usually comes with that outlaw thirst quencher.

Don's old friend, Jack Baldwin, was on the job early in the game and managed to relieve the tension to a slight degree but most of our big daily newspapers took cognizance of the whole business and found in it sufficient excuse for giving it plenty of space in the afternoon editions.

Don is said to be a regular cut up in his village across the river and was much chagrined that he could not get away with his jokes in a regular city. Just what Omaha institutions the party had visited prior to the exciting episode above recorded is not a matter of record, but it is believed the places have been overlooked by the Ringer sleuths.

Don is a fine kid and has nice folks. It is a shame that he should make such a fool of himself, just because the country has gone dry. But these things will happen in the best of regulated families.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

Cuba began sending part of its undesirable citizens to Omaha, Ralph Radcliffe was the latest arrival from Havana. Following calls from some of his former friends he offered the information that he expected to remain in the city only a few days.

Jerry McGee, one of Sam McCrum's expert taxi drivers, gave notice that he would file for the position of mayor of our village. Many of the wise street corner politicians expressed the belief that there would be a great improvement in affairs if he was elected.

Fred Myers, expert on wrestling affairs, was offering some pertinent suggestions to his friends about future matches in the sports world. He was not drinking at the time, either.

Bill Carey, one of our well known paving promoters, was spending a few days attending proceedings in Judge Sears' court. Carey admitted that times have changed.

Numerous persons were offering their services to the county as public defender, which was considered proof that all of our patriots were not dead.

Al Sorenson, local newspaper paragon, spent Thursday looking over filings for political office. He didn't overlook many bets in his time.

Dispatches from California cities were to the effect that Ervine Brandeis had returned to his Omaha home to look over affairs at his big Douglas street store. He did not have to wire home for money.

deis had returned to his Omaha home to look over affairs at his big Douglas street store. He did not have to wire home for money.

Dave Crounse, North End fish distributor, received a new consignment from the Arctic ocean, which he is putting out at popular prices.

Dr. Crandall, Omaha dentist, denied the report that he was one of the victims of the highjackers and asked newspapers to say that he lost none of his 20-karat gold fillings that he kept in stock for Omaha people.

Frank Keegan, Omaha attorney, was busy during the week in the interest of clients and friends. Charles Tyrrel visited with him Tuesday.

Following an absence from business of several days our townsman, Orrie Hulse, was back on the job on South Sixteenth street. He said a lot of fellows better attend to their own business.

The story that Harry Pullman had gone to work was denied by those who kept in touch with city affairs.

Hugh Murphy, jr., well known local paving expert, was able to enjoy a noon-day luncheon recently, the first time for five years.

Tom Hoctor, South Side financier, visited at the court house last Thursday. Some of the elevator conductors there said he had something up his sleeve.

GAS PLANT LEMON WORRYING MANY OMAHANS WHO CONSIDER PURCHASE

May Get Pile of Junk Instead of Secure Perpetual Going Concern
Like Water System—Municipal Ownership of all
Public Utilities Not Desirable

The question of whether Omaha shall buy the city gas plant and issue $4,500,000 in bonds to pay for it is a big one and the people are taking a lively interest in what is being done about the matter. Among a lot of people who have studied the business the gas plant, as at present constituted, is considered a great big lemon and one which is not worth four and a half million dollars of the people's hard cash.

Ten years ago the gas demands were much larger than they are today; twenty years ago it looked as if the gas plant was going to be a gold mine for its owners. As a lighting proposition, however, the gas company has almost gone out of business and in places it has lost most of its value as a heating unit of the city.

One thing seems to be a cinch and that is that four and a half million dollars is an awful big price for the concern. A large part of the gas plant is under ground and much of it is junk. Not much money has been spent in recent years keeping the institution up to date and there are millions of feet of pipe that ought to be renewed right away. There is a question as to what is going to be the value of all gas plants, as compared with what they once considered was their going value.

If you go to the headquarters to buy fixtures these days you must get one that has a combination for both gas and electric light, unless it is a wall bracket or something of that sort. The amount of gas used for lighting purposes is being reduced right along and as a heating asset it is indicated that it will not have a long life.

With the increasing prices of oil and other gas products there is every indication that gas will soon increase in price, despite the meager requirement for the commodity. At the best, the gas business can only hold its own, so far as revenue is concerned, with the chances that it will be a loser rather than an asset in the near future. If Omaha is going to buy this gas plant the people need more information about it. One thing is certain, and that is that as quick as the purchase is made a large amount of money must be spent for additions and renewals with the income a very material quantity. Maybe the taxpayers will have to pay four and a half million dollars for a bundle of junk on which they can realize little more than 10 or 15 per cent.

There is nothing being produced to show that the purchase of this gas plant is going to be a good thing for our people in any manner and that it may soon become a Jonah, at least at the price that has been put upon it. The gas business is not what it once was and it is a dead moral cinch the purchase of the local plant will be much different from buying the water works which is a perpetual necessity.

It may be a good thing for a city to own its water works but that is no sure indication that it is a good thing to purchase a deteriorating public utility which may soon become little more than a junk pile.

County Board Not Responsible

Judge Sears decided, in effect, during the hearing of the injunction case against the county commissioners, that their pledges did not amount to much, from a legal standpoint. This fact was already pretty thoroughly understood and the decision came as no surprise. The real issue will be fought out next week, when Attorney Breen expects to show that the contracts were illegally let, because of defects in the specifications.

There is so much of real interest in this injunction proceeding to all the people that it will be watched with interest. The final result will show just how far a man can get with his money and whether Douglas county is to be flim-flammed out of an amount which may exceed half a million dollars. The men who made this bond election possible are behind the movement to prevent our people becoming victims of highway robbery. They acted in good faith. Had they lost the election they would have had to furnish something like $10,000 to defer the expenses of that election, held on the promise of the county commissioners that we would have brick paving.

The court decided this agreement of the commissioners was not enforceable. Be that as it may, "there is a nigger in the woodpile" and it is up to our people to smoke him out. If this affair is to go unnoticed Douglas county taxpayers might as well throw their money into the sewer and take chances on what they will get for it. Three million dollars of their money is directly affected in this road paving business and they will do well to sit up and take notice before it is too late.

Incidentally, two members of the county board who have voted in favor of repudiating their pledge, Compton and Unitt, are candidates for re-election at the coming fall election. Every voter will have an opportunity to vote for or against them next fall.

GOVERNOR EDWARDS' WITHDRAWAL IN NEBRASKA.

The withdrawal of Governor Edwards from the race for the Nebraska delegation to the democratic convention in San Francisco is in keeping with the logic he has shown from the start. The governor will undoubtedly be second choice of the Nebraskans, a fact with which he is well acquainted. It was the proper thing for him to leave the local field to Senator Hitchcock and his action will have the effect of solidifying the delegation from this state.

Withdrawal of Edwards' name came little as a surprise to his Omaha supporters because they knew from the start that he would use good judgment in all matters of vital concern to the party. When the democrats meet in San Francisco Edwards will be one of the dominant figures before the convention and will carry all the big eastern delegations with him.

Mr. Bryan's influence at this quadrennial gathering will doubtless be less than ever before, in view of the double-crossing tactics of which he has been guilty the last four years. The Edwards forces, on the other hand, will predominate and he will find plenty of support from this state when the time comes to decide who shall be the presidential nominee.

NEBRASKA'S PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

It is something unusual for one state to have two active presidential candidates, with a third one ready to accept. That is what the people of Nebraska are experiencing just now. General John J. Pershing and Senator Gilbert M. Hitchcock are already actively in the field, while William J. Bryan admits he could not refuse such an honor, if given the fourth opportunity to make the race.

General Pershing's name was filed with the secretary of state last Monday and the senator's name last week. Much has been said against an army man for president, but it is the duty of Nebraska republicans, for the sake of local pride, if nothing else, to support General Pershing at the Chicago convention, and they will doubtless do so. Mr. Updike's recently acquired newspaper has been his biggest supporter and Nebraskans can do no less than get behind the greatest army general the world has known.

Senator Hitchcock has filed with the expectation of carrying the state in the coming primary which he doubtless will do. The senator has come clean on the biggest issues in which our people are concerned and is entitled to the support of his fellow democrats from Nebraska. He will have a good fight on his hands, with Bryan leading the opposition. Bryan is a nonentity, has never done a single thing for his native state and is not a democrat from any standpoint. Governor Edwards of New Jersey will be the second choice of Nebraska democrats from all indications. This fact is also a thorn in Mr. Bryan's index finger.

Whatever may be the final outcome of the two big conventions, Nebraskans in both parties should give loyal support to their native sons. They are not only worthy, but either of them is big enough for the job he seeks. Our people have seen them from all angles and neither of them has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. In the meantime Mr. Bryan is doing everything within his power to tear down every Nebraska monument that does not carry the insignia of Bryan architecture and is unworthy any consideration from his own people.

CRAFTSMEN AND UNIONS DISAGREE.

A lively scrimmage is on between members of rival workmen's organizations in Omaha and the Mid-West Labor News and the "Open Shop," recently established labor periodical, are having some lively tilts about conditions in their respective spheres.

According to "Open Shop," if there is to be a difference of opinion on labor matters which may result in one class refusing to work with another the rule will work both ways. That paper intimates that if it comes to a show-down, the Building Craftsmen, which institution is not identified with union labor concerns, may refuse to work with union men, just as the union men have been refusing to work with Building Craftsmen.

This puts an entirely new light on labor conditions and may become a big issue in labor matters. It is said the Building Craftsmen are, in many instances, receiving higher wages than their friends in the labor organizations and may refuse to join labor unions for fear of having their wages reduced by affiliation.

It is an issue that has not heretofore come up and the union labor organ is giving it considerable publicity. That paper declares "Open Shop" is trying to create dissension and refuses to take its work seriously. It is said, however, that "Open Shop" is making many recruits to its side of the question and is standing for independence of men who do not want to be held down to any particular scale.

Summed up, the question is that there is an apparent slush fund of several hundred thousand dollars, if all the $3,000,000 bonds are expended as the present appropriation is being spent. On contracts already let it is easy to figure out $75,000 of easy money for somebody. Who is getting it? You taxpayers are paying the bill.

ANDREASON HAS BIG RUN-IN WITH LADIES

(Continued From Page One.) When our Omaha women had their meeting the other day they never even discussed this feature of the question before them. All they had in mind was the fact that 130 former jail and penitentiary men were under parole and by their action intimated that Andreason was responsible for the whole business. If anybody had asked them why these persons were at liberty it is a safe guess that not half a dozen of these women could have explained why.

So far as Andreason is concerned, he probably can take care of himself. Perhaps it is a good thing these women have an opportunity to learn something before they get too far into the political mire they have wished upon themselves.

PERSHING'S NAME IS FILED FOR PRESIDENT

Will Contest With Hiram Johnson and Leonard Wood for Nebraska Vote.

John J. Pershing's candidacy for presidential nomination on the republican ticket was formally launched Monday when a voter's petition, signed by nearly 5,000 Nebraskans asking that his name be placed on the primary ballots April 20, was filed with the secretary of state and accepted as legally sufficient.

Signatures attached to the petition represent practically every county in the state and include hundreds of ex-service men and a large number of women, who will vote for the first time in Nebraska at the coming election. Only 100 signers from each of the six congressional districts are needed to accompany the nomination petitions according to the 1917 primary law.

Prominent men and women in all parts of the state have signed the Pershing petitions and ex-service men, from majors and colonels to privates, have joined the ranks through the Pershing Soldiers' and Sailors' club at Omaha. The Pershing organization announced that a large number of additional petitions were being received daily and that an additional block of signatures might be filed before the closing date, March 20. Hiram Johnson and Leonard Wood are the only other candidates who have entered Pershing's home state.

SKINNER COMPANY HAS OPEN HOUSE WARMING

Bob Howe, who recently became the big boss at the Skinner packing plant on the South Side, gave a big house warming to everybody in Omaha last Thursday when he declared the new Skinner packing house open for business.

The new plant is ideal in every respect and is the very latest thing in packing house architecture. There are something like 6,000 stockholders interested in the Skinner plant and there is plenty of capital to make it a money maker from the start.

Nothing named Skinner would be complete without Paul Skinner's picture on it and that goes for the new refrigerator cars which are also decorated with his portrait.

How to Save Money On Your Long Distance Calls

This advertisement is intended to explain the different classes of long distance telephone service and how they may be used to the best advantage.

When you make a long distance call, if you are willing to talk to anyone at the telephone called, you will be using what is known as station-to-station service. This is considerably cheaper than other classes of service. Station-to-station rates are based on a charge of about 5 cents for each six miles up to 24 miles and 5 cents for each 8 miles beyond that distance, with a minimum charge of 10 cents.

HOW TO PLACE A STATION-TO-STATION CALL

When using station-to-station service you should give the long distance operator the name and address of the business or the individual with whose telephone you desire connection. In addition you should give the telephone number if you are sure it is correct. On this class of service the charge begins when the telephone called is answered.

The charge on a station-to-station call cannot be reversed; that is, it cannot be charged to the telephone called.

This is how you would place a call with the long distance operator on a station-to-station message: After giving your own telephone number and name, say, for example, "I want to talk to John Brown's residence at Blue Springs, Nebraska," or "I want to talk to George Anderson's store at Burchard, Nebraska." Care should be taken to make it clear to the long distance operator that you do not want to talk to a particular person or persons at the telephone called as in that case it would be a person-to-person call and you would be charged a higher rate.

By the very nature of your requirements for long distance telephoning, no doubt a great many of your business and social calls permit the use of station-to-station service. And in addition you can more often use this cheaper class of service if you make special arrangements with those with whom you desire to talk, either frequently or occasionally, to be ready for your call at a given time.

HOW TO MAKE A PERSON-TO-PERSON CALL

If you ask to talk to a particular person or persons over long distance, you will be using person-to-person service. The charge for this service is about one-fourth greater than for station-to-station service because the operators may have to spend considerably more time and hold the wires steady while they make an effort to locate the particular party. This class of service is not only more expensive but naturally slower than station-to-station service.

If you desire person-to-person service at a particular hour, and wish to make an appointment to talk at a given time, the appointment rate will apply.

If you wish to talk to a person who does not have a telephone and for whom a messenger must be sent, the messenger call rate will apply.

HOW THE RATES ARE APPLIED

The following is an example showing the station-to-station and person-to-person rates for distances up to sixty-four miles:

Miles.	Station-to-Person.	Person-to-Person.
0-12	$.10	$.15
12-18	.15	.20
18-24	.20	.25
24-32	.25	.30
32-40	.30	.40
40-48	.35	.45
48-56	.40	.50
56-64	.45	.55

While the messenger call rate and the appointment rate are not shown in the above table they are each about 50 per cent higher than the station-to-station rate. The report charge, which also is not shown, is about one-fourth of the station-to-station rate.

THE REPORT CHARGE

When you place a call for a particular person and for any reason not within the telephone company's control the call is not completed, or if you make a call and are not ready to talk when the other person is ready within one hour, a report charge is made. This is to cover a part of the expense of the operator's time and the use of the wires while we are trying to find your party.

SPECIAL NIGHT RATES

The special evening rate between 8:30 p. m. and 12 o'clock midnight on station-to-station calls is about one-half the day rate and the night rate between midnight and 4:30 a. m. about one-fourth the day rate. The minimum evening or night charge is 25 cents, the day rate applying where the charge is less than that amount. The evening and night rates for person-to-person calls are the same as the day rates.

The rate for any class of service may be obtained by calling "Long Distance."

Further information in connection with our long distance service will be gladly furnished on request.

Using Tobacco
Perhaps you've tried to stop using tobacco only to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.

Habit Banished
In 48 to 72 Hours
No matter how long a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you've been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 50 years—Tobacco Reducer will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.

Tobacco Reducer contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

COUNCIL BLUFFS WILL STAGE PREMIER MATCH

Al Fiori, acknowledged premier sports promoter of western Iowa, has secured a finish wrestling match between Soldier Gus Kervaros and Stanislaus Zbyszko for next Monday night and will pull it off at the Auditorium in Council Bluffs. This affair ought to be worth the money, because both of these big fellows have blood in their eye. It is to be a finish affair and both of these big brutes are in the pink of condition.

Incidentally, there will not be many strings on style, so long as nobody carries a sandbag. Compared with some of the events, that have been pulled off recently and called championship affairs, this match will be a whirlwind. Fiori says that the Auditorium will be closed as soon as the seating capacity is sold, which means that everybody who wishes to see the match will have to get on the ground early.

This will be no "pussyfoot" affair and for those who are anxious to see an honest to God wrestling match it will be worth several prices of the admission they will be asked to pay.

BILLY WATSON AT THE GAYETY

Billy Watson and his "Parisian Whirl," with the original and only Billy Watson himself as the principal fun-maker, makes his annual appearance at the popular Gayety theater all week, starting tomorrow. This season Billy Watson is prepared to out-shine his previous record, even in view of the fact that last season his offering was the most strikingly successful of all on the Columbia circuit.

The organization this season is composed almost entirely of stars as far as the principals are concerned, and as to the chorus it sets a new standard of beauty of voice and face, for with his customary care Billy Watson has selected thirty little French girls who can sing and dance and who are exceptionally pretty.

Aside from providing a treat to the eye and ear, this prominent producer has this year also provided a genuine musical farce in two acts at the "Cafe Chantant," a piece with a comedy plot and brimful of laughs. With burlesque elasticity the piece has permitted the introduction of several novel scenes and graceful numbers.

To unfold the fun in proper manner Billy Watson has engaged to support him the following cast of burlesque and vaudeville artists: Billy Spencer, Edgar Bixley, Harry Howe, Phil Welch, Pearl Lawler, Violet Buckley and Pearl Turner.

As an extra added feature with Billy Watson this week only is Rappi, the startling violinist, who has just returned from Europe after an absence of four years, during which time he has entertained the soldiers of the allied armies and fought in the famous battles of St. Mihiel and the Argonne.

The costumes are reported as being gems of the modiste's art and the scenery and electrical investiture is said to be each a revelation in its respective line. The reproduction of the famous gambling room known as the "Blue Room," and the race track scene have surpassed anything that has ever been shown on the American stage. Ladies' dime matinee at 2:15 daily all week, starting Monday. Sunday's matinee begins at 3:00.

AT THE BRANDEIS.

Walker Whiteside

After every great war the stage enjoys a cycle of romantic plays. The London theaters are never without their swashbuckling heroes, dashing cavaliers and gallant rogues. "The Master of Ballantrae," in which the distinguished American actor, Walker Whiteside, will appear at the Brandeis theater the first half of next week, in such a piece.

There are thrills aplenty; love passages of the soul stirring kind, mystery of the weird sort, and breathless scenes of wonderful intensity. There are numerous amusing episodes, and many laughable incidents, much witty dialogue, and situations which never fail to bring peals of laughter.

Robert Louis Stevenson considered "The Master of Ballantrae" his greatest work, and it certainly affords Walker Whiteside innumerable opportunities for the brilliant acting for which he is famous.

Otis Skinner

News that Otis Skinner is imminent upon the local boards is always glad tidings to local theatergoers, and when the announcement includes the additional information that the popular Charles Frohman's star is to appear in a brand new play, anticipated joy is twofold. Mr. Skinner comes to the Brandeis for an engagement of four performances, starting next Thursday, March 25. After a ten weeks' run in New York city, he will be seen in a new comedy written for him by Maud Skinner and Jules Eckert Goodman and entitled "Pietro."

EMPRESS ATTRACTIONS.

"Cheer Up," Greenwald and Herman's latest musical comedy, which is said to eclipse all their previous efforts, comes to the Empress as the stellar attraction for the first four days of the week, starting Sunday. Barney Morton and Ruth Noble, assisted by Loretta Rollo, head the cast of most capable artists who sing, dance and disport themselves in the most cheerful manner throughout the entire production. The costumes are such as you would witness in a Zeigfeld Follies or "Passing Show" production. The songs are new and exclusively used in this offering and include "The Lyrebird and the Jay," "Dr. Cheer and "Everybody Nowadays is Dancing Mad."

Featured on the bill, is Bertie Fowler, a comedienne, and character impersonator, who is one of the few real artists in character work appearing before the public today. Her child imitations are proverbial. Another feature identified as solely her property is her imitation of the young clubman with alcoholic propensities. Her impersonation is most perfect.

SAND HILL LIVE WIRES GIVE OMAHA ONCE OVER

Jerry La Fontaine of Stewart, and C. F. McLaughlin of Rolfe, both well known sand hill millionaires, have been in Omaha this week looking over the city and disposing of a few hundred thousand dollars worth of their surplus cattle, horses and other western Nebraska products.

La Fontaine formerly was connected with the stock yards crowd in this city but for several years has been in the stock business out in his country. He says it is time for Omaha people to again get a regular crowd to run the city, and McLaughlin votes with Jerry on the proposition. Incidentally, Jerry is known as one of the leading mouth organ artists of the state and is called upon in his part of the country to entertain "card parties" with his high class music.
