

BOXING MATCHMAKERS ARE AT FAULT

SAMSON PUTS ON HIS TEN DAYS OF FROLIC

Biggest Thing He Has Ever Attempted in Omaha

RUTH LAW WILL BE HERE TO JUMP

Some of Stunts of Week And Who Will Perform Them—Annual Electric Parade Will Be One of Features With Grand Ball

Samson will be here next week, and with him come all of the old things and a lot of new wrinkles to make a hit with the people. Never in the history of his reign has he made such elaborate and comprehensive arrangements to entertain the folk of Omaha and of Nebraska as he has this year.

The carnival will be here as usual with its bellowing showmen calling their wares and the gifters will sit around looking for the soft money, although Brother Gardner has put it out cold turkey that he has been able to hold them down to a considerable extent and that the shows will be about as clean as Omaha has ever put on during a carnival season.

The doings this year will not be confined to the carnival grounds. Out at the race track Samson has built a fine racing pavilion several hundred feet long for the accommodation of those thousands who visit the place. It is estimated this pavilion will care for 20,000 persons. It is a substantial affair, built of concrete and steel. There will be races of all kinds, including three days of trotting races and one day automobile racing.

On the carnival grounds will be fun galore for the good people of Omaha. During the week there will arrive the wonderful shows that have been coming to the city for several years and Leo Greer says they will out-class anything of the sort put on in this city. Dan Whitney and Harry Benford will not have their usual array of baby dolls for sale but there will be plenty of baby dolls just the same.

Particular interest is being taken in the races. Race men have made unusual arrangements to be there with their strings and some handsome purses are hung up for which they will compete.

Ruth Law, with an augmented concert band, will be on hand to furnish some unusual entertainment for the people. She will perform the unusual stunt of leaping from an aeroplane to an automobile, while both are making about seventy-five miles an hour. "Smiles of 1921," will be there four afternoons, with tons of fireworks for the evening. These doings will all be held afternoon and evening, with several tons of fireworks for the evening display. This is something entirely new for Ak-Sar-Ben. The fireworks will be unusual. Two hundred people will be used to handle this feature of the doings and everything will be done for the comfort of the people who go to see this master pageant.

The night shows will be a feature all the week. Ak-Sar-Ben field will be in the best possible condition. The Ak-Sar-Ben people have gone into this business as never before. They have spent much money to put the field in ship-shape and special facilities for the care of automobiles has been made. There is lots of room out there for this part of the affair, and visitors will have no trouble to find a place to park cars there.

The stunts of Ruth Law are described as unusually thrilling and will furnish something entirely new to Omaha people. Miss Law is probably the world's greatest aviatrix. She has not before come west to show her ability in that line and Omaha people will be the first to see her perform her daredevil stunts. She will be here early next week.

On the carnival grounds for ten days will be seen the usual things and then some. The Ak-Sar-Ben committee has not decided whether they will permit confetti throwing but by many, it is expected some concession will be made along this line. Harold Gorham will have the red hots with pop and other things to drink (no beer) and the pop corn man will be there too. No "watch the little ball spin" or guess the number will be there because Samson has tabooed all games of chance.

Altogether, the Ak-Sar-Ben people expect to quite outdo themselves this year in their efforts to give the people their money's worth. The usual night parade will be held with fifteen floats. Lee Greer has them about finished. They will be more beautiful than ever before, Gus Rense says. To cap the climax, as usual will be the grand ball.

The city will thus put on two weeks of fun and frolic such as has never before been seen in Omaha.

DOPE FIENDS MUST FIND NEW HOMES

Police this week made a raid on the Mardis block at Sixteenth and Webster streets and cleared that old rookery of the coke fiends that have inhabited the place for a long time. Old timers like May Stevens and some of the rest were taken to the police station and given a various assortment of fines. May has taken up headquarters across the street where she is doing business at the old stand and in the same old fashion. Incidentally, her man was caught in the toils and in his shirt tail the police found $150 in bills and a collection of the fiend's instruments of torture.

This old block has long been one of the places where this class of people made their headquarters. The police have done a fine job of cleaning and the block is now cleaned of them.

LEOPOLD BRIGGS CONCERN INVESTIGATE FOR REBATING

Reports that the Leopold-Briggs concern, one of the largest on the local grain exchange, was being investigated, on charges of rebating commissions caused considerable excitement this week on the exchange. In connection with the report came one that the firm was dissolving and that the end was near. The Leopold-Briggs company has been one of the largest doing business on the floor and some members expressed themselves as not being surprised at the reports.

"UNPARDONABLE THING" SAYS BISHOP OF THE VOLSTEAD ACT

Rev. Thomas F. Gailor, Episcopal bishop of Tennessee, speaking at a Salt Lake meeting of Episcopal bishops being held in that city, said "to me the writing into our constitution of the eighteenth amendment was an unpardonable thing."

This bishop takes no part in politics, he is not a democrat nor a republican but he sees what has happened to the country with prohibition written into our constitution. "Both parties have played politics with the conscience of the country," says Bishop Gailor. The church can take care of prohibition, in the opinion of this learned gentleman.

Those elements that have been making money out of the prohibition business are the fellows that made the trouble. Now that we have got rid of the saloon they are making matters still worse by keeping up their howling and ranting and tear their hair because the law is not being enforced. Such men as Elmer Thomas, who has made every nickel he has fighting the saloon is an example. Recently there was held in our city

Mr. Leopold is reported as very sick and could not be seen in regard to the matter.

MRS. DWYER DEAD AT HOME OF CHILDREN

Mrs. Josephine Dwyer died Tuesday night. She was 77 years old and had been well until less than a week before death. Dilation of the heart was given as the cause. She left nine children, among them being Mrs. Hugh Murphy, at whose home she died and Lawrence Dwyer, a North Sixteenth street business man. Mrs. Mae Dwyer was a daughter. All of her children survive her.

BARBECUED MEAT AT BASE BALL HEADQUARTERS

Base ball headquarters on South Fifteenth street is now the home of barbecued meats. The latest addition to this well known sporting house is a lunch stand at which barbecued meats are featured. Billy Fox, says it is the only place in town at which barbecued meat is on sale. At any rate the stock is in great demand from all quarters.

CLARIDGE GETS PLACE AS BRANDEIS CREDITMAN

Fred H. Claridge, who is awaiting trial for wrecking the bank at Blair has taken on a job with J. L. Brandeis & Sons, as assistant credit man. It is very fine of Tom Quilan to take on his friend at this time, when he is in so much grief. Tom is always doing something for his friends, and it is no surprise that he should pick on Claridge, who is having troubles enough of his own.

KILMARTIN STOPS FIGHT FIRST ROUND

Fans Are Disappointed With Affair of Last Week

BUCKLES WILL FIGHT ANY OF THEM

Man Says McCue Should Get His Money—Every Man Who Paid His Money to See Show Unhappy—Other Matches Were Good

Managing a prize fight is not such a soft job, as a lot of people may think, but to deliberately rob the people of their money by pulling one of the fighters out of the ring is worse yet. And that is what happened to Mattie McCue in his match with Kid Schlaiffer. It was a rotten affair. Beside that they gave McCue's share of the money away.

The state of Nebraska governs boxing in the state and that is all there is to it. When McCue got into the ring with Schlaiffer he doubtless knew he was no match for the Omaha lad and he weighed 35 pounds less than Schlaiffer did. He stood it for one round and was willing to try to stay another round if given a chance. But Frank Kilmartin, whom the state had put there to decide such points, refused to let the fight go any further and there you are.

One thing is a cinch. McCue had a right to his money. He showed plenty of good faith, he stayed one round and was willing to go ahead. As to the match itself, McCue was no match for Schlaiffer. That was evident to everybody, and it was apparent from the time the bell rang that he had no chance. Schlaiffer knocked him down four times in the one round the affair went.

McCue was a fighter around these quarters seven years ago. He has not been fighting very much since. At any rate he was clearly outmatched, a fact that should have been looked into before the match was made. The fact remains that Kilmartin let it go on and then stopped it before McCue had a chance to show what he could really do.

The day before the fight Guy Buckles took on seven of the fighters for two rounds each and made them all quit. He then took on Buster Dwyer, a punk of a kid who is very active in the game and Buster laid one on Guy's eye that made him know he had been fighting.

Speaking of Guy Buckles, why doesn't some live promoter put him on in some of these matches. Guy is a fighter who knows the game and is ready for any man and will concede several pounds in weight. He would draw a crowd that would be worth talking about. Guy keeps in condition all the time. He would need a little tapering off and would show his man the hottest time he ever had. He was never in better condition and is as fit as a fiddle.

Buckles is an Omaha boy from every standpoint. He lives here now, and always has lived here. He is entitled to some consideration and would bring out the biggest crowd of any boxer now on the list that is being shown.

Referring against to the Schlaiffer-McCue contest, one who has been interested in all kinds of sports in Omaha, had this to say: "It was the rottenest thing I ever heard of. This man McCue was clearly outclassed but he did everything that could be expected of him. He showed in the ring and stayed until Kilmartin ordered the fight stopped. They had no business to stop the fight, at least until he had an opportunity to show what he could or could not do. And so far as robbing that youngster of his money, it was simply outrageous. He came to Omaha in good faith to put on the fight. His expense was considerable and the least that Kilmartin could have done would have been to let him go on with the match."

Promoters and match-makers will put this boxing law on the hummer for fair before they get through with it. Jake Isaacson is a splendid fellow and he gave the public his money's worth in the other three bouts to say the least and it is very unfortunate for them that it ended the way it did.

Earl McArthur of Sioux City clearly outclassed Benny Fogal of St. Paul in their ten-round semi-windup. It was a real fight but all Fogal had

DR. LYMAN HELD FOR MURDER OF LUCILLE PAYNE

Omaha Physician Charged With Committing Illegal Operation on Woman About to Become Mother—Is Out on Bond Everybody's Doing It

Dr. Elizabeth Lyman, was held on the charge of murder, in connection with an illegal operation on Mrs. Lucille Payne. She is out on a bond of $5,000 and presumably is practicing again. If Dr. Lyman maintains an office it is not in the telephone book. Dr. C. B. Foltz testified he called to see Mrs. Payne at Dr. Lyman's office and examined the dead woman, but could not tell whether an illegal operation had been performed or not.

Mrs. Payne's mother went to Dr. Lyman's office, but could throw no real light on the subject. Meantime, the state is holding Dr. Lyman for murder.

Every indication goes to show that an illegal operation was performed and one witness, a Miss Gilott, testified she went to Dr. Lyman's office with Mrs. Payne twice and that she saw Dr. Lyman put Mrs. Payne on the operating table on one occasion. At any rate the woman died. It is known Mrs. Payne was soon to become a mother, something which she did not want to do. It is simply a case of a doctor wanting the money and not being able to get away with the job. It is a nasty piece of business and Dr. Lyman will be given a chance to explain to a jury.

As long as this world goes around, people will be doing the same thing that Mrs. Payne did and there must be somebody to handle such cases.

The trouble is that most of the doctors who are in that business do not know what they are doing. It requires an expert. It is not a very pleasant thing to talk about but it is true that "everybody's doing it," and just as long as there is demand for such work there will be a doctor to do it.

Dr. Fields did some funny things, that landed him behind the bars. The woman in the case is dead. She insisted on an operation and paid for it with her life. These cases are heard of every day. Unless the town secures some experts to look after them or unless these people go to some of the experts who are already in the field more will pay for their foolishness with their lives.

The doctors are not to be blamed. Few families there are who do not have a case of this kind some time in their life time, and who are not to be judged simply because they are not found out. Look yourself over before you say too much. The lack of a family is not a disgrace, but it is very convenient for a lot of people.

Doings In Omaha Fifty Years Ago

Billy Fox, had on a grouch and it took him four days to get rid of it. And nobody cared what he did with it either.

Charlie Schneckenberger was kept busy explaining why he was not working. And it was so easy to explain, too.

Charlie Franke offered to sell the Auditorium to anybody that would locate the missing letters in the electric sign. He ought to give it away for that matter. That's what Harry McCommon said anyway.

Old Man Johnson of the Gayety was thinking of trading the place off for a carnival ground, and go fishing an extra month. He said there was money in it.

It was pretty soft for Joe Glynn. He said his friends did not call on him any more.

Frank Weiner was explaining to his friends why he laid off a week. Frank was great on alibis. He always had one.

Ida Ryan was still living in the same place. So was Mame.

The state officials said street car officials should reduce their salaries. They will—when the robbers nest again.

Harry Yeager spent a few days in our village, a guest of Joe Glynn. He entertained Mr. Glynn royally for a couple of days, and overlooked no bets.

Doc Tanner, former member of the legislature, took a day off to celebrate his birthday and his auto broke down. The last seen of Doc, he was looking for a friend who would replevy the automobile.

Jack Baldwin was moving his office again. He says a partner is a handicap, and he was going it alone. And those who knew best said he was right.

Ernie Holmes was thinking of putting on a prize fight. He said everybody was getting away with the money and he might as well have some of it. We say Ernie was right after the last fiasco.

With all respect for the American Legion, we wonder why it should take so long for those fellows to learn that this man McCue was a has-been.

Compromise With Wage Reduction Said to be 10 Per Cent—Both Sides Are Apparently Satisfied—Empress Still Holding Out

The stage hands have settled their troubles with the Gayety and there will not be any trouble there. They will continue to run as an open shop and said he had no trouble securing all the help he needed.

The Gayety has reduced its prices and Manager Johnson said it would continue to operate with the prices reduced, without respect to the action of stage hands and musicians. The Empress has been a losing proposition for a time and has not paid any dividends for a long time, it is stated, but Manager Ledoux does not anticipate further trouble with the stage hands. He has a full crew and is putting on his shows regularly, and he says that is all the people care for.

Manager Byrne does not look for any trouble with the unions. His theatre, the Orpheum, signed with the union at a reduced scale and he will continue to use union stage hands and musicians.

Since this above was written Manager Ledoux of the Empress theatre has also settled with his stage hands at the reduced scale and will not attempt to run an open shop. All Omaha theatres will now be closed shop places.

I AM constantly in receipt of letters from women tired of office work who ask what chance they would have in investing their savings in a small farm. They want a home, they want to be their own masters, they long for the country after years of confining labor at a desk.

Success in farming requires training and experience as well as a wish for that type of work. A good business training and initiative are excellent as stock in trade, but there should be more than that. Farming is no easy job.

Two young women tell me that they are making money with a small sheep farm. There is plenty of demand both for the wool and the meat. But these two women also run an apinary, marketing their honey, in a distinctive package. It is the finest honey, and they charge a high price for it. They have worked up a trade with a list of private purchasers, and sell through the mail.

The thing is to have only the very highest class of produce, to charge high for it, to put it into attractive and striking packages that are an advertisement in themselves, and to sell direct to the consumer. With the parcel post this is possible. We find it better to specialize in several things rather than in one. Establish a market for one of your items establish it for all.

This sounds like good talk, and I recommend it to my readers who may be thinking of turning to the farm as a source of income.

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS*"TARTAR."

"TARTAR," as applied to the wild tribes which inhabit middle and central Asia, is one of those words in which a wrongly assumed derivation has modified the spelling and the very shape in which we now have it, for the people usually designated by this name are not "Tartars," but "Tatars."

The interpolation of the "r" in the first syllable came about when these hordes burst into Europe during the Thirteenth century and swept everything before them. Many persons claimed that the ravages of the invading cavalry constituted a fulfillment of the prophecy in the ninth chapter of Revelation concerning the opening of the bottomless pit and the loosing of the inhabitants of the infernal regions. From this belief ensued the change of their name from "Tatars" to "Tartars," the latter being an outgrowth of Tartarus, or hell, whence these implacable hordes were supposed to have come.

The bravery of the invaders, together with their stoic disregard for pain and the manner in which they turned upon their guards when captured, also gave rise to the expression "catch a Tartar" or "he caught a Tartar," which is in use to this day as a synonym for being taken by surprise, particularly when a person thinks that he has made an easy conquest.

WELCH OPENS UP NEW

OMAHA RESTAURANT
John Welch is opening up a new cafeteria at 1705 Douglas street. It is the sixth for him since he began business, a few years ago. All of which makes John Welch part and parcel of our city in more ways than one. Welch is one of Omaha's leading business men. He is a feeder, that is, he puts it on the table and all you have to do is to eat it. Because the Welch system is one entirely the making of John Welch. He knows what will please the people and he has figured it all out about what you want in advance for you.

When he started several years ago he had one restaurant. There were cafeterias in Omaha then. If you wanted to eat you soon learned the Welch system. Now there is not a cafeteria in Omaha that is not run by an Omaha man. He is Johnny on the spot all the time, is this man Welch.

The Welch restaurants are an asset to any town and Omaha is getting what is coming to it by Omaha people spending their money and operating Omaha restaurants.

FREE LEUBEN SOON

The release from Leavenworth of Thomas H. Matters will result soon in the release of M. L. Leuben, now serving time for the same crime for which Matters was convicted. Leuben has made application for pardon and it has been signed by Judge Woodrough, who sentenced him. Judge Woodrough says he believes Leuben has suffered enough and that his pardon might result in him returning to Sutton and securing enough money to pay back the people who lost their money in the failure of the 1st National bank of Sutton. The tragic death of his daughter a year ago in California, where she was soon to have been married, in an automobile accident, and the broken health of his wife are given as reason for the efforts now being put forth in his behalf.

men for a long time. He has a good business which he declares she is trying to destroy. He recently caught her in a road house with another man, he says. He has a lot of stuff up his sleeve when the trial comes up. He has brought a cross petition for divorce.

WORKING TO DESTROY W. O. W.

Enemies of W. A. Fraser are still putting out that old bunk about what the insurgents are doing to him and what they are going to do. To start with Fraser is not doing anything that any good business man would not do under the circumstances. He has had the unfortunate experience of going through a world war. He found the financial conditions of the Woodmen in a condition when he took hold one that could not be boasted about. FV met that condition in a manner that has been satisfactory to most of the members.

It is high time for those who would destroy the order to take a tumble to themselves and get in or get out and not attempt to destroy an insurance organization that has furnished full protection for them for thirty-five years.

was apparently a punch. He could not use it to any advantage, however, because of the cleverness of the Sioux City boy, who clearly outclassed his opponent in side-stepping whenever it was necessary.

Buckles declares he is willing to meet either of these men and wants a match with one of them.

Frankie Cougan and Young Bruno put on a fast four rounds, in which the former got the decision. Bruno was not the clever kid he has been touted to be and Cougan was entirely too fast for him.

to find that the habit has such a hold on you that you gave up trying.
You know, better than anyone else that you ought to stop because, sooner or later, it is bound to undermine your health. Heart trouble, indigestion, dizziness, nervousness, insomnia, poor eye sight—these and many other disorders, can often be traced directly to the use of tobacco. Besides it is an expensive, utterly useless habit.

Habit Banished In 48 to 72 Hours

No matter how firm a grip tobacco has on you—no matter whether you're been smoking cigars, pipe or cigarettes or chewing plug or fine cut for a month or 50 years—Tobacco Redeemer will positively remove all craving for tobacco in any form in from 48 to 72 hours. It does its work so quickly that all tobacco "hunger" is gone almost before you know it. Your desire for a smoke or a chew begins to decrease after the very first dose.
Tobacco Redeemer contains no habit-forming drugs of any kind—it is in no sense a tobacco substitute. It does not cause the slightest shock to the nervous system; on the contrary, it quiets the nerves and makes you feel better in every way.

THEATRICALS

AT THE BRANDEIS

Probably the strongest and most distinguished cast ever assembled for any picture in the history of the screen is seen in the Rex Ingram production for Metro of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," adapted by June Mathis from the world famous novel of Vicente Blasco Ibanez, which is to be the attraction at the Brandeis Theatre for eight days beginning Saturday, evening, September 10, with matinees daily.

While every player of the fifty principal roles was selected because of his or her ability to enact the part, there is scarcely a name in the list that is not prominently known to the motion picture fans.

Rudolph Valentino, who has the role of Jlio Desnoyers, the romantic South American hero of the story, has been in pictures for years and only recently was selected to play the title part in "The Shiek," one of this year's biggest sellers. Previous to going in pictures Mr. Valentino was a professional dancer.

Alice Terry is enacting the leading feminine role, that of Marguerite Laurier, the little French girl whose love for Julio forms one of the absorbing interests of the great story. Miss Terry played in the Metro production of "Shore Acres" and was a featured member of the cast of that gigantic production "Hearts are Trumps."

Joseph Swickard, a veteran of twenty-five years' experience on the speaking stage and ten years in motion pictures appears in the part of Marcello Desnoyers. Every picture fan will remember Swickard as Ambassador Girard in that wonderful picture "My Four Years in Germany" written by the Ambassador himself. Wallace Beery is in the cast too. "The best villain" on the screen is essaying one of the German officers who plays havoc with the young women in "The Four Horsemen."

Nigel de Bruiler takes one of the most difficult roles in the production. The role of Tchernoff, the Russian who relates the legend of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," Mr. de Bruiler has created a characterization that will stand out for a long, long time.

"GARDEN FROLICS"

AT THE GAYETY

Another brand new show is the announcement of Irons and Clamage in the offering of Garden Frolics, the attraction billed at the Gayety all next week commencing with a matinee on Saturday. Everything new from top to bottom and from side to side is the nearest way to express the newness of this entertainment. A new book in two acts that offers opportunity for twelve great big scenes, interposed with catchy musical numbers and some very witty dialog.

Several special features will be introduced among them may be mentioned The Great Big Cabaret Scene, in which several specialties will be presented. Lou Powers, a comedian of exceptional merit displays acting ability of an uncommon order, that sets the audience in convulsions.

The Big Harlem Scene features Pearl Hamilton and a corps of dancers who assist her in a classical dance that proves very effective.

Donna Hage has been brought forward and is seen to a good advantage in a duet with Lou Powers that calls for repeated encores.

In the Big Circus Scene, many laughs have been provided, and where Joe Lyons, Jack Shutta, Liddy & Liddy, Lillian Bessent, Dot Stewart and Holden and his Mule, mimic a circus, representing clowns, acrobats, ballet dancers, announcers and everything usually seen with a regular three ring circus. The Gypsy Scene rivals in splendor a historical pageant.

Every member of the cast has been given plenty to do and each one is deserving of individual mention, even to the Chorus of Twenty Dancing, prancing, frolicsome beauties, who are gorgeously costumed.

Sunday's matinee starts at 3:00. Beginning Monday there will be a ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily all week.

EMPRESS OFFERING

Again the kiddies are to see an animal circus, when Hill's Society Circus, who are headlining the Empress show which opens there Sunday, are to present an offering which should find favor with both old and young. Beautiful Shetland ponies, horses and dogs are to perform such feats as balancing, acrobatics, high and broad jumping, flying pad and physical culture work. In addition to this there is to be a military drill in which the animals manouver in companies of two, three and four.

For lovers of harmony singing, the Riverside Three, singers, harmonists and comedians, are to render a program of ballads, popular songs and old time melodies with such harmony, volume and tonal power that should fully meet the requirements of the public.

Maureen Englen, billed as the "Scintillating Songstress" who aside from her pulchritude, vivacity and personality, possesses extraordinary talent as a singing comedienne, is to provide one of the featured acts of the show.

The Rosa King Trio, "Tight Wire Dancers" are to offer a most sensational exhibition of thrilling feats on the tight wire, in which they feature the novelty of dancing on a single thread of steel.

The photoplay attraction for the first half of the week is to be "The Tiger's Cub," starring Pearl White. It is a powerful drama of the Alaskan snows adapted from George Goodchild's famous novel.

ORPHEUM OFFERINGS

Another double headline show is scheduled for next week at the Orpheum. One of these stellar acts will be a combination of classical music and classical dancing. Mayron Vadie, America's peerless danseuse, is to appear with Ota Gygi, court violinist to the King of Spain. Another stellar offering will be that of Wilfred Clarks, who is capitolly assisted by Grace Menken and two other players. This company will present the laughable comedy, "Now What?" There will also be two featured acts. One of these will be the song cycle presented by Rita Gould, and the other will be the clever skit, "The Young 'Uns," as presented by Avey & O'Neil. The bill is to be rounded out by three other select offerings.

In the performance of Miss Vadie and Mr. Gygi they produce delicate tone poems combined with delicate color. Their art is addressed as much to the eye as to the ear. She has youth, beauty, exquisite grace. He is an acknowledged virtuoso, and without doubt the most distinguished violinist on the vaudeville stage.

As for Mr. Clark, he has scored signal success with such well known stars as Ada Rehan, Julia Marlowe and Lawrence Barrett. He is now rated as one of the most effective farce comedy stars of the present generation. Miss Menken, who appears with him, has portrayed ingenue roles with Annie Russell, Lew Fields and in a number of the big New York productions.

The exclusive song numbers used by Miss Gould were all written for her by Frances Nordstrom. With Leo Karlin at the piano her act scores always a decided triumph. She is known as "the girl with the gladsome personality."

Avey and O'Neil are blackface comedians, and in their line of work there is nothing better on the vaudeville stage. Bright patter and catchy songs are special features of their performance.

The motion picture comic caricatures, Aesop's Fables, will be a film feature.
